

2nd Saturday

ART WALK

November
13
Noon to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — The Astoria November Art Walk will take place noon to 8 p.m. Saturday.

Angi D Wildt Gallery, 106 10th St.

Featuring new owl sculptures from Richard Burke, as well as work by Ron Nico-laides and Bill W. Dodge. New glass pieces will be on display by Nancy Bosse and Christine Kende.

ARTstoria Gallery, 1168 Commercial St., 2nd Floor #205

“Stories Through Art” Contemporary representational paintings by artist and gallery owner, Connie Dillon.

Ashriver Woodworks, 229 14th St.

Ashriver Woodworks is a family business that specializes in epoxy furniture, home decor and reclaimed furniture.

Astoria Art Loft, 106 3rd St.

Presenting a collection of greeting cards, small and large paintings, jewelry, place-mats, glass, photography and more. There will be an art supply sale. Open 1 to 4 p.m.

Astoria Coffeehouse & Bistro, 243 11th St.

Featuring the work of Dulcye Taylor, which examines opacity, transparency and color vibrations inspired by cityscapes.

Astoria Institute of Music & Center for the Arts, 1159 Marine Drive

Newly acquired vintage curiosities and magazines, tools, books, batiks, postcards, holiday ornaments and figurines and vintage art. Live music during Art Walk.

Astoria Visual Arts, 1000 Duane St.

AVA presents “Offal,” featuring work by Simone Fischer curated by Lauren McLaughlin. Fischer uses photography and gleaned objects to expose a landscape marred by the weight of industry, exploitation, urban renewal and the void of working-class American culture.

See Page 5

The Franklin Apartments

Providing Elegance & Efficiency to Downtown Astoria for Over 100 Years

1432 Franklin Avenue
Community Property Management

503-325-5678

‘She Ran Through the Forest. She Did Not Stumble,’ by Connie Dillon, will be on display at ARTstoria Gallery.

‘Cosmic Egg,’ by Lisa Ackerman, will be on display at the Astoria Institute of Music & Center for the Arts.

Work from multimedia artist Brad Reef will be on display at Foragers.