

Whiskerman

California rock band set to perform in Astoria

ASTORIA — Rock-and-roll band Whiskerman will perform Thursday at Fort George Brewery.

The free show will be held from 6 to 8 p.m.

Throughout the last seven years the Oakland band has developed an underground reputation for tackling the sublime with their ambitious songwriting, thunderous stage show and acute lyricism. They have since emerged as an engine of the Bay Area's revitalized psychedelic and festival scenes.

Chamber orchestra returns to concert this weekend

The North Coast Chamber Orchestra will present their first public concerts this weekend since the coronavirus pandemic began. The orchestra will present "Minor Alterations," under the direction of conductor Cory Pederson, two concerts of classical intrigue and humor.

The first concert will take place on Friday at 7 p.m. at St. Catherine's Episcopal Church, located at 36335 N. Highway 101 in Nehalem. The second is scheduled for Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Charlene Larsen Center for the Performing Arts located at 588 16th St. in Astoria.

Admission to the concerts is $10 for adults, and $5 for students. Children younger than 12 can enter for free with adult supervision. All concerts are family friendly. All audience members will be required to show proof of vaccination against COVID-19 and wear face coverings.
