A NEW ERA ON PIER 39

Gift shop and wine bar open on Astoria's historic waterfront pier

BY PETER KORCHNAK

Pier 39 is changing.

A gift shop and wine bar have opened on the waterfront, expanding the offering at the historic destination. The businesses in the space will host a holiday market this Saturday afternoon.

'Let's open a store'

Stacey Stahl and Jeff Boyce watched the traffic on Pier 39 from their apartment at the Cannery Loft Condominiums and wondered how to better contribute to the local community.

"I always had this secret dream to have some kind of a gallery or art shop," said Stahl.
