ERIKA & TRAVIS RUMOHR'S WEDDING

Story by Hannah McKelson • Photos by Julie Adams

*M*ewlyweds Travis and Erika Rumohr first met 12 years ago, when he was a college student and she a recent graduate. Introduced by a mutual friend, they quickly became inseparable, soon adopting a dog together named “Max.” However, their romance was complicated by Travis’s post-graduate plans, and although they tried a long distance relationship for a while, they eventually decided to split.

The two weren’t kept apart by distance for long — a few years later, under the guise of visiting Universal Studios with Erika, Travis flew from Ecuador to Florida, and the two found themselves rekindling their love for one another. Travis was completing graduate work in Oregon, and the pair soon packed up and drove cross-country with their dog Max in tow so that Erika could move in.

Fast-forward to 2020, and while the COVID-19 pandemic put many relationships to the test, Travis was certain if he had to spend every waking minute of every day with a single person, he wanted it to be Erika.
