

ABOVE: 'Everything Will Be Okay,' by Janelle Baglien, is on view at Gearhart Station Studios.

RIGHT: 'Raleigh,' by Susan Thomas, is featured at A Great Gallery.

Continued from Page 4

The Natural Nook, 738 Pacific Way

This gallery represents more than 20 local consignment artists year round. New work is regularly added.

Gearhart Station Studios, 3427 U.S. Highway 101

Meet featured local artists at this new working studio and gallery specializing in beach paintings and colorful figurative works.

Trails End Art Association, 656 "A" Street

Featuring paintings and other art forms by Phyllis Taylor. A reception with the artist will be held on Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m.

Taylor's painting of Oregon's endangered silverspot butterfly received the People's Choice award in the Oregon Habitat Conservation Stamp Art competition in 2021. Her latest works will be on display at Trail's End until March 27.

