COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Washington State Parks offers free days

ILWACO, Wash. — Two free days are being offered by the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission: On March 19, in recognition of Washington State Parks' birthday, and on April 22, in celebration of Earth Day.

This means visitors to state parks will not need a Discover Pass for a day-use visit on those days. The Discover Pass is required to access lands managed by the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife and the Department of Natural Resources. For information, go to parks.wa.gov

Sale to benefit animal shelter set for Saturday

WARRENTON — Clatsop Animal Assistance, the nonprofit partner of the Clatsop County Animal Shelter, is holding a sale from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at the Pacific Grange, 90475 U.S. Highway 101 in Warrenton. All of the proceeds will benefit the shelter.

Volunteers will be selling a wide variety of beds, toys, collars, leashes, kennels, clothes and treats, and will be available to answer any questions about adoptable animals and volunteer opportunities at the shelter.

Health and wellness programs offered

NorthWest Senior and Disability Services offers health and wellness programs that help people stay healthy, improve health or manage a health condition.

These programs include: Tai Chi Moving for Better Balance; the National Diabetes Prevention Program; and Stanford's Chronic Disease Self-Management Program.

The HOPE Senior Peer Mentor Program is also available for those who are 50 or older and wish to gain more effective coping skills to help manage mild to moderate depression and anxiety caused by life or isolation; chronic illness, a disability or end-of-life concerns; family problems, caregiving stress or loss; and difficulty adjusting to change or constant worry.

For information, contact the NorthWest Senior and Disability Services Aging and Disability Resource Connection at 866-206-4799.

Job Corps completes four service projects

The Tongue Point Job Corps Center provided several pounds of food, blankets, coats, socks and a check for $500 to Filling Empty Bellies, as well as blankets and comforters to the Astoria Warming Center.

This was the last of four service projects the center spearheaded in celebration of the 40th anniversary of Management & Training Corp.

The first service project involved partnering with Lucy's Books to collect and donate a new book to every Lewis & Clark Elementary School student; the second project was hosting a recycling event for bottles and cans, raising over $5,000 for Columbia Senior Diners; and the third project involved raising and donating $1,000 to Clatsop County Court Appointed Special Advocates.
