

2nd Saturday

ART WALK

March
12
Noon-8 p.m.

ASTORIA – The March Astoria Art Walk will take place from noon to 8 p.m. on Saturday.

Angi D Wildt Gallery, 106 10th St.

Featuring Northwest folk artist Bill W. Dodge's "Astoria... Somewhere Over the Rainbow," the first painting of a series that will be unveiled throughout the next year. Also featuring bronze owls by Richard Burke and abstract paintings by Christine Hippeli.

ARTstoria Gallery, 1168 Commercial St. #205

This month's theme, "Marching Into Spring," welcomes warm days ahead with the rich colors of nature and art representative of new adventures. Featuring original paintings, prints and home items, plus journals and cards by artist Connie Dillon.

Astoria Art Loft, 106 3rd St.

This gallery features vibrant acrylic portraits and florals by Cydne Perhats, along with creatures by Kimberly Warsheski, Chinese brush paintings, watercolors, oils, and acrylics by Tom Grogg, paintings by Meghan Leinssar, glass art by Christine Kende and more. The gallery will host a reception on Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m.

Astoria Brewing Co. Taproom on 12th, 119 12th St.

Astoria Brewing's Taproom on 12th is planning a wall to showcase artists monthly. Visit the gallery on Saturday from 4 to 8 p.m. for drink specials, samples and to meet the March featured artist D. Valenzuela. She creates whimsical art inspired by music and nature, specifically mushrooms.

Astoria Visual Arts, 1000 Duane St. Astoria Visual Arts welcomes Amiran White, photographer for the Chinook Nation, as well as tribal creatives for "ntsayka ilii: our place," an interpretive exhibit exploring the resiliency of the Chinook people and their relationship to Tansy Point as they seek to preserve and restore the legacy of their ancestors and the inheritance of their descendants.

Bridge and Tunnel Bottleshop & Taproom, 1390 Duane St.

Rob Burns has had a camera in his hand since he was 8, attending Glenn Fishback School of Photography. Burns uses a

See Page 14

ABOVE: Stirling Gorsuch's 'Daydream,' part of the 'Coastal Lexicon' series now on display at RiverSea Gallery.

RIGHT: West Coast Artisans Gallery will display wire bonsais made from landfill scrap metal by artist Ryan Everson.

FAR RIGHT: 'Northwest Musings #24, Between Heaven and Earth' by Marc Boone is on display at Imogen Gallery.

