SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Tenley Matteucci, Astoria

First base, No. 14

Sports: Volleyball, softball

Favorite sports moment: When I found out that I had one of the highest batting averages my freshman year, and being a starting varsity player for softball.

Where I see myself in five years: I see myself coaching softball for a Little League, or even being a dental assistant somewhere.

Favorite road trips: My favorite road trip was when the volleyball team traveled to Coos Bay for a huge tournament.

Favorite pregame music: Favorite pregame music is stuff that really pumps me up and gets me in a hyped mindset.

Most influential coach or teacher: Most influential coaches would be Junior Israel, Lou Marconeri, Dale Hirahara.

Advice for younger teammates: My advice would be keep up the hard work and follow your dreams, and when the going gets tough, dig in and play harder.

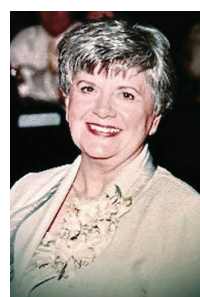

OBITUARIES

Carol (Pilgard) Hartstrom

Eugene
1939 — 2021

In loving memory of a beautiful woman, a beautiful soul, Carol (Pilgard) Hartstrom. She was a loving, generous and kind sister, aunt, mother and grandmother. She was dearly loved by her family and by her many friends! Her dog, "Cassadore," was her favorite pal.

Carol Hartstrom

Fred, and they moved to Pleasant Hill, where they raised their two children. They both were avid supporters of whatever interested their children, Michelle and Rik, as they were growing up.

Carol enthusiastically took on the support staff (team manager) role for Fred, who coached youth sports when Rik was young. Carol had more recently been privileged to see her grandsons' intense interest in sports.

Carol and Fred both loved cats and dogs, and they were cherished members of the family in both Pleasant Hill and Eugene. She and Fred always had a fondness for the coast and loved to visit the beach at any season.

Carol was very involved with helping plan annual Astoria class reunions and loved the close ties she had with her classmates. She also enjoyed participating in nonprofit organizations in Eugene. Carol lived in Eugene until she passed away in December 2021.

A memorial service will be held at First Presbyterian Church in Astoria at 11 a.m. on May 28.

A private burial service will be held at Greenwood Cemetery following the service.

A reception will be held at the Astoria Elks Lodge, following the service, until 5 p.m.

Memorial contributions may be given to your local animal shelter or to Oregon Public Broadcasting.

Knappa baseball team set for spring break games in Arizona

The Astorian

The Knappa baseball team is on a weeklong road trip to Arizona, where the Loggers have been able to take a little time to sight-see along the way.

Included was a spring training baseball game between the Seattle Mariners and Los Angeles Dodgers, where the Loggers posed for selfies with the Dodgers' Matt Beaty and manager Dave Roberts.

Knappa is playing three games in three days in Arizona, including games on Tuesday and Wednesday against Colorado schools Buena Vista and Ralston Valley.

PREP ROUNDUP

BASEBALL

Cubs defeat Fishermen, 8-2

Newport pitchers Kaden Bruns, Braxton Blaser and Ethan Bruns held Astoria to just five hits Friday afternoon, leading the Cubs to an 8-2 win over the Fishermen in a nonleague baseball game at CMH Field.

The three Cub pitchers combined for six strikeouts and four walks, while Newport collected nine hits and led 7-0 through six innings.

Dylan Carlson had two of Astoria's five hits, and the Fishermen scored two runs in the bottom of the seventh on two walks, two singles and a hit batter.

Astoria has three games in two days at the Newport Spring Break invitational this week.

Seaside opened its season on Saturday with a doubleheader sweep over Fort Vancouver at Broadway Field, 12-2 and 12-2.

SOFTBALL

Warrenton no-hits Neah-Kah-Nie

The Warrenton softball team scored five runs in the third inning on Friday, highlighting a season-opening 7-2 nonleague win over Neah-Kah-Nie.

Warrenton pitchers London O'Brien and Avyree Mieth combined on a no-hitter, with nine strikeouts and six walks.

Mieth and Kaylee Poe each had two hits for Warrenton.

Gulls go 1-2 at Toledo

After winning their season opener 18-1 over Ilwaco last Thursday, the Seaside softball team dropped three straight games Friday and Saturday at the Toledo Boomer Bash invitational.

Toledo defeated the Lady Gulls 17-0 in Friday's game, and Seaside lost a pair of games Saturday to Union/Cove (17-0) and Junction City (8-6).
