

Horse Feathers to perform at Liberty Theatre

ASTORIA — The band Horse Feathers is scheduled to perform at the Liberty Theatre on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in support of their upcoming album reissue.

Horse Feathers features Justin Ringle and Nathan Crockett on violin, backed by new additions Luke Ydstie on upright bass, Kati Claborn on banjo and Halli Anderson on violin.

The concert will also feature special guest Nick Delffs, who grew up in Mendocino County before establishing himself on Portland's music scene as frontman for The Shaky Hands. The group will be performing selections from "House With No Home," their breakthrough album now set for reissue, as well as other acoustic favorites.

Admission for the show is $25. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Proof of vaccination or negative COVID test required for all attendees. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit www.libertyastoria.org.

Hoffman Center hosts 'Poetry and Artistry of Trees' workshop

MANZANITA — Artist and poet Alana Garrigues will host a workshop focused on "The Poetry and Artistry of Trees" at Hoffman Center for the Arts on Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The workshop will incorporate writing and visual arts with mindfulness of the land, acknowledging the important role of trees in local ecosystems. Its focus will be on combined techniques of watercolor, collage, ink and more.

Workshop participants will be given six to nine pieces of artist paper and a small kit focused on tree stories and inspiration. Shared materials available will include watercolor paints, acrylics, ink, brushes, pens, oil pastels,
