

COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Volunteer long-term care ombudsmen needed

Volunteers in Clatsop County are needed to be long-term care ombudsmen to protect the rights and dignity of, and advocate for, residents of nursing, residential care, assisted living and continuing care facilities and adult foster care homes.

Ombudsmen respond to a variety of resident concerns, including problems with resident care, medications, billing, lost property, meal quality, evictions, guardianships and care plans.

To attend the free training, prospective volunteers must submit an application, be interviewed, have their references checked and complete a criminal records check.

Online training via Zoom is being offered in April. There is a meet and greet at 1 p.m. April 7; training is from 10 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 3 p.m. April 12, 14, 19, 21, 26 and 28.

The deadline to submit application for this training is March 31. To apply online, go to oltco.org/volunteer/ltco.html. For information, call 800-522-2602.

for the 35th annual Dr. Edward Harvey Historic Preservation Awards now through April 1. The awards recognize significant historic preservation projects that contribute to the preservation and architectural heritage in Astoria.

Citizens are encouraged to nominate a project or property owner who has made outstanding efforts to preserve historic buildings; the work must have been completed within the last two years. Nomination forms can be downloaded at bit.ly/HarveyAward or picked up at City Hall.

The Historic Landmarks Commission will review the nominations and determine winners based on the contributions of the project to the architectural and historical character of Astoria.

Completed nominations may be emailed to comdevadmin@astoria.or.us or mailed to or dropped off at City Hall, Community Development Department, 1095 Duane St., Astoria, OR., 97103.

The awards will be presented at the City Council meeting on May 2.

For information, call 503-338-5183.
