'Treasure the Beach' and help clean Seaside's shores

SEASIDE — Help clean Seaside's beaches at the "Treasure the Beach" cleanup event on Saturday at 9 a.m.

Coordinated by the Seaside Aquarium in collaboration with other local organizations, this monthly volunteer event offers locals and visitors the chance to steward North Coast shores. As a gesture of thanks, the event will offer volunteers "cleanup coins" redeemable at a handful of local coffee shops.

Gloves and trash bags will be provided to volunteers on the Seaside Promenade on the day of the event.

For more information, visit www.seaside-aquarium.com.

Cannon Beach church to host music festival

CANNON BEACH — Cannon Beach Community Church will host a music festival spanning the month of April, starting with a piano performance by Jennifer Goodenberger, accompanied on flute by Shelly Loring, on Friday at noon.

Stamp out hunger with crafts, donations

ASTORIA — Let's Stamp Out Hunger, an annual fundraiser benefitting the Clatsop Emergency Food Bank, will take place at the Astoria High School commons on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Community members are invited to bring donations in the form of funds or food items at any time of day. Sponsored by Red Dwarf Graphx, the fundraiser event is an all day gathering which allows space for card makers, scrapbookers and other paper crafters to express their creativity. The event will feature raffle prizes and a silent auction, as well as hourly "make and takes" and door prizes for craft makers.

Admission for the event is $10 or 10 cans of food. Raffle tickets are $5 each or three for $10. Participants are asked to bring their own craft projects, tools and materials to work with. Lunch will be provided.
