

Seaside tops Astoria in clash on the course

The Astorian

After a rough outing at The Dalles to start the season, the Seaside boys golf team was back to a more normal effort Tuesday, in a Clatsop Clash match at the Astoria Golf & Country Club.

The Gulls carded a 382 team score, shooting past Astoria (459) for the win.

“This was a big step in the right direction for us,” said Seaside coach Jim Poetsch. “We shaved nearly a hundred strokes from our first tournament. Having Carson (Kawasoe), even though he did not play to the level he is capable of, helped a lot. But even without him, every player that played at The Dalles shot better today.”

Kawasoe was medalist with an 81 in his first action of the season, followed by senior teammate Ever Sibony with a 92.

“We played our more seasoned golfers today, but we had a few young guns (including Caleb Langmo with a 95 and Madden Wunderlich at 96) on JV that outplayed most of our varsity,” Poetsch said. “Hopefully that sets the tone, that if you want to play varsity for this team you better be working on your game or someone else will take your spot.”

He added, “if we get seven or eight guys willing to put in the time trying to earn those spots, we could be a decent team by the season’s end.”

Freshman Ian McHone led Astoria with a 90, while the Gulls rounded out their scoring with sophomores Carson Bates (103) and Carter Perrigo (106), and senior Riley Wunderlich (107).

After McHone, Astoria had Judd Field (106), Dietrich Allen (124), Drake Marabell (140) and Tadyan Cole (146).

“Our team this year is very young and enthusiastic,” said Astoria coach Peter Roscoe. “Even though they didn’t exactly light it up, for most of them it was the first time they ever competed in a golf match, so there are no regrets, no where to go but up. It won’t be easy, but they

Gulls, Fishermen earn all-league honors

The Astorian

The talent ran deep in Cowapa League boys basketball in 2021-22, as three teams had five or more players named to the Cowapa’s All-League team.

In their last season before dropping to the 3A next school year, the Banks Braves led the way with six all-league selections, four seniors and two juniors. Banks senior Cooper Gobel earned league Player of the Year honors.

Co-league champion Seaside had five all-league players, four on the first team. Senior Ever Sibony was named Defensive Player of the Year.

Coaches of the Year were Pat Marlia of Banks and Bill Westerholm of Seaside, who finished his 24th season with 330 career wins.

Astoria also had all five starters earn all-league honors, including three seniors on the first team.

In the junior varsity match, Seaside finished with a 432, to Astoria’s 511.

Astoria’s Wilkin no-hits 8th-ranked North Marion softball team

The Astorian

Ranked fifth in the latest 4A softball coaches poll, the Astoria softball team is quickly climbing toward the top spot, with an easy 10-0, five-inning win Wednesday over eighth-ranked North Marion at CMH Field.

Astoria freshman pitcher Maddie Wilkin remains unhittable, as the freshman tossed a no-hit, 13-strikeout game against the Huskies, with one walk.

After Wilkin struck out the side in the top of the first, Astoria’s Mae Walter made it all the way to third on a one-out error by North Marion in the bottom of the first.

Freshman Shelby Bruney drove in Walter with a triple to center, Wilkin reached on another North Marion error to score Bruney, and the rout was on.

After a scoreless second, Astoria tacked on five runs in the third, on five singles and two walks.

Bruney highlighted the game with a two-run, inside-the-park home run in the fifth inning, and the Fishermen finished with 11 hits.

Wilkin did the rest, striking out the side in the first, third and fourth innings, with 50 of her 70 pitches going for strikes.

Corbett 15, Seaside 14

The Corbett and Seaside softball teams played a seven-inning contest Wednesday that included five lead changes and resulted in an eventual 15-14 win for the Cardinals in a nonleague game at Broadway Field.

The two teams combined for 29 runs on 16 hits, with 15 walks and 14 errors.

Seaside scored two runs in the first inning on five walks, before Corbett answered with three runs in the second for a 3-2 lead.

The Gulls came back with two runs in the bottom of the second, highlighted by three more walks and a run-scoring single by Abby Nofield.

Corbett scored twice in the top of third for another lead change, before Seaside took an 8-6 lead with three runs in the bottom of the fifth.

The Cards seemingly put the game away with a nine-run sixth inning for a 15-8 lead, but the Gulls scored five in the bottom of the sixth on three Corbett errors and a three-run homer by Emma Arden, pulling Seaside to within 15-13.

The Gulls held Corbett scoreless in the top of the seventh, and Seaside could manage only one run in the bottom of the seventh.

Ila Bowles had two of Seaside’s seven hits, while Arden drove in three runs.

I saw the highest standard of health safety practices in effect during my hygienist appointment today—much higher precautions than I'd seen in a local hospital when having tests last month. The new sanitation equipment and attention to patient safety at Klemp Family Dentistry is in keeping with a dental practice I consider cutting edge with respect to all my dental needs. It's wonderful having a world class dental practice here at the coast, one where I can have procedures performed for which I used to have to travel to a specialist in Portland. I have been a patient of several local dentists in the past, but none had the skill and, more importantly, the attention to patient comfort that Dr Klemp provides.
