Warrenton baseball cuts down Scio, 11-4

The Astorian

The Warrenton Warriors were holding a narrow 3-2 lead over Scio through four-and-a-half innings Friday at Huddleston Field, when the Warriors caught a little 6 o'clock lightning from their offense, resulting in an eventual 11-4 win.

The Loggers were one strike away from holding Warrenton scoreless in the bottom of the fifth, when Tyson McGrorty had a two-out, two-run double to center field. A few pitches later, Mikey Ulness doubled to almost the same spot, scoring another run.

The Warriors' onslaught continued in the sixth, when Dawson Little had a one-out, solo home run, and two hit batters later, Kaison Smith belted a three-run homer to center field for a 10-2 lead.

In between, Scio had runners at second and third with no outs in the top of the sixth, when Little came on in relief of Dylon Atwood and struck out three straight batters.

"Dylon gave us a great game on the hill, and did so much more, with a two-run base hit (in the first inning) and his base stealing," said Warrenton coach Lennie Wolfe. "Our bats finally woke up a bit in the fifth inning, then Dawson comes on in the sixth and strikes out three in a row to get us out of that."

And, "it has been a long while — I couldn't even guess — since we've had two home runs in the same inning," he said. "And they were both very well hit."

The Warriors had nine hits, four for extra bases. Warrenton is scheduled to open Coastal Range League play on Tuesday at Rainier.

Astoria softball team wins seventh straight

The Astorian

Astoria continues to set the pace in 4A softball, as the Lady Fishermen scored another easy nonleague win Saturday afternoon, 12-1 at Gladstone.

Astoria pitcher Maddie Wilkin tossed a four-hitter, while her team pounded out 14 hits, including three for extra bases. Fionna Duryea led the offensive attack with four hits, including a double and a triple, while Wilkin struck out 13 batters with no walks.

The Lady Fish are seventh in the latest Oregon School Activities Association rankings, but Astoria is currently the highest-scoring team at the 4A level, and only one team in the state (6A Gresham, with 128 runs over nine games) has scored more runs than Astoria's 126, also through nine games.

Astoria will be the team to beat when Cowapa League play begins this week. The Fishermen (7-2) host Tillamook (4-6) Tuesday.

Scio 13, Warrenton 3

Warrenton's Avyree Miethe had a double and a home run, but Scio pounded out 16 hits in a 13-3 win over the Warriors in a nonleague softball game Friday at Warrenton.

Scio's Taryn Ramsay had a double, Kylee Baumgartner added a triple, and freshman Myleigh Cooper belted a two-run homer in the fourth inning for the No. 3-ranked Loggers, now 7-1.

Cooper also pitched a complete game, allowing four hits with 19 strikeouts with no walks.

BASEBALL

La Grande defeats Seaside, Astoria

The Astorian

After defeating Seaside 12-1 a day earlier, the La Grande baseball team concluded its weekend on the North Coast with a 17-0 victory over Astoria, Saturday afternoon at Tapiola Park.

The fourth-ranked Tigers had three doubles and a home run Friday against the Gulls at Broadway Field, then out-hit the Fishermen 14 to two in Saturday's game.

La Grande held a slim 3-0 lead through two innings, before erupting for eight runs in the third and five in the fourth.

Tiger pitchers Nick Bornstedt and Logan Williams tossed a two-hit shutout, with nine strikeouts and no walks.

berg had the second hit of the inning, scoring pinch runner Jude Robinson and Carlson with the winning runs.

Baker starting pitcher Silas Carter allowed just three hits over six innings with nine strikeouts, but the Bulldogs committed four errors, two in the bottom of the seventh.

Astoria starter Niko Boudreau scattered three hits with 11 strikeouts and one walk in five innings, while Fromwiller pitched the last two innings to pick up the win.

The Fishermen were never threatened in the second game, scoring 11 runs in the bottom of the first and tacking on four in the third.

Four Astoria players had two hits apiece, with Merrick Benesch and Palmberg scoring three runs each.

Astoria sweeps Baker

The Fishermen were coming off two wins Friday over Baker at CMH Field, 4-3 and 15-7.

Astoria trailed 3-1 entering the bottom of the seventh in Game 1, but rallied behind a leadoff double from Garrett Hillard. Legend Tuimato reached second on an infield error, with Hillard scoring on the play.

Dylan Carlson and Connelly Fromwiller drew walks to load the bases, before the Bulldogs turned a double play to briefly stop the rally.

Moments later, Astoria's Teague Palm-

Seaside 13, Baker 2

Lawson Talamantez had two of Seaside's six hits, in a 13-2 win Saturday over Baker at Broadway Field.

Seaside pitchers Cameron Schulte and Talamantez scattered seven hits with four strikeouts, while the Gulls opened up a close game with three runs in the fifth and six in the sixth.

The Bulldogs had seven hits, but committed six errors in the field, while two Baker pitchers walked seven and hit three batters.
