

Delbert Joel Sarkie
Astoria
July 19, 1933 — March 18, 2022

Delbert Joel Sarkie passed away on March 18, 2022. He was born July 19, 1933, to Joel and Anna (Westerholm) Sarkie. Delbert was an only child, and was raised on a farm in Brownsmead.

He graduated from Knappa High School and soon after joined the U.S. Navy from 1953 to 1955.

Delbert wed the love of his life, Kathryn (Kitty) Payne, on June 15, 1957. Delbert and Kitty were married 61 years and had three children, Kathy, Teri and Paul. Delbert was a wonderful father, and loved to coach his children and watch them play sports and other activities.

Delbert worked at Wauna Mill from 1965 until he retired. He enjoyed oil painting, wood working, fishing, bingo and spending time with family and friends.

Delbert was a member of the Peace First

Delbert Sarkie

Lutheran Church in Astoria, and also enjoyed being a cruise host for the ships that docked in our port.

He was a quiet, gentle and loving man of faith, and lived his life by example. He was loved by many, and will be forever missed.

Delbert is survived by his son, Paul (Londa); son-in-law, Dennis (Carol) Leach; grandchildren, Ronnie (Brittany), Ryan, Jade (Kris), Lindsey, Paul, Bren, Brady, Camden, Grayson (Miriam) and Talon; and numerous great-grandchildren.

Delbert was preceded in death by his wife, Kitty; daughter, Kathy White, and her husband, Henry White; and daughter, Teri Leach.

A service will be held on Sunday at 1 p.m. at Peace First Lutheran Church in Astoria.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Peace First Lutheran Church in Astoria.

Ann Hyde
Astoria
Dec. 13, 1925 — March 26, 2022

For 96 years, Ann Hyde graced Earth with her cheerful benevolent hard work, dedication to her family, considerate kindness to all, a joyous sense of humor and faithfulness to God. Ann passed away in her home at Clatsop Retirement Village on March 26, 2022.

Ann led an exemplary long life, enriching all around her. She made delicious meals daily from scratch for her family, and was a full-time homemaker in addition to some work outside the home. She supported her husband, Harry, whole-heartedly in all his work.

Ann filled her daughters' lives with love, teaching, fun, loving kindness, good morals and work ethic and wonderful memories. Ann is now reaping her considerable rewards in heaven.

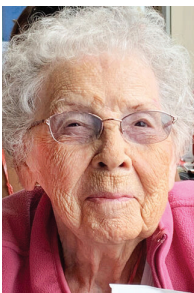

Born Anna Henrietta LaChance to Edwin and Alvina LaChance on Dec. 13, 1925, she was known to her natal family and grandchildren by the nickname Tudy, and to her nieces as Aunt Betty — both names thanks to her older sister Edwina's influence.

Ann was a proud member of the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde, and relished this native heritage. Ann attended school at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Grand Ronde and Willamina High School.

She met Harry A. Hyde in the shipyards of Portland, and married him on her birthday, in 1947, in Astoria, where they established the Yellow Cab company along with her brother, Harvey, and another partner. Ann was a dispatcher for the cab company.

In her younger days, Ann worked picking hops in the valley near Kaiser. After her two daughters were well into their school years, Ann worked as a waitress for the Koffee Kup.

A parishioner of St. Mary, Star of the Sea Catholic Church, Ann was a member of the Altar Society for many years, as well as the

Ann Hyde

Catholic Daughters of the Americas.

Her life was an example of service to others — always reaching out to help those that she could, right up until the last of her ability to do so.

She was a consummate coupon clipper and shared the results of her shopping skills with the church food bank.

Upon retirement, Ann and Harry enjoyed the winter months in Mexico for some years. Ann enjoyed reading and music of all genres, and grew up singing with her sisters. The sound of her laughter is well remembered, as is her positive outlook on life.

Ann was a marvelous baker, and her pie crust was legendary. One of Ann and Harry's greatest pleasures was sharing garden produce and baked goods with friends and family.

She was able to drive right up to her last birthday, and was proud to have never received a ticket or been in an accident.

Ann Hyde was preceded in death by her husband, in their 50th year of marriage; and all of her brothers and sisters, Harvey, Harry and Thomas LaChance and Marjorie Scheese, Edwina Hawks and Georgiana Nichols.

She is survived by her daughters, Lynn Hyde (Leska Emerald Adams) and Kathy McCall (Doug); grandchildren, Melissa McCall, Sarah Finn (Andy) and Bryce McCall; great-grandchildren, Kylee Orozco (Anthony), Baylee and Steven McSwain, Andrew and Addison Finn and Juniper and Emmylou McCall; great-great-grandchild, Oliver Orozco; and many nieces and nephews.

Many thanks to those at Clatsop Retirement Village who lovingly cared for Ann over her 16 years there, and most especially in the last month and days of her life.

Services will be held at St. Michael's in Grand Ronde.

Magdalene (Maggie) Royston
Lincoln City
1933 — 2022

With her son and daughter by her side, Magdalene (Maggie) Royston went to be with the Lord on March 25, 2022, after a long battle with Parkinson's disease. She was 88 years old.

Maggie was born in Platte Center, Nebraska, in 1933. She was the first of two children born to Erich and Elsie Stahl. In 1935, after her younger brother, Edwin, was born, her family moved to Salem.

One of her favorite jobs in high school was working at one of Bob Corey's soda fountains. After graduation from North Salem High School, she worked for the Oregon Department of Revenue as a key punch operator.

In 1955, Maggie married Frank Royston, who worked for Pacific Northwest Bell. She worked for Crown Zellerbach in Portland until the birth of their son Mark in 1961. In 1968, their daughter, Theresa, was born.

In 1969 the family moved to Seaside, and the following year to Gearhart, where they would spend the next 46 years.

Frank retired in 1995, and Maggie was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease five years later. They traveled to Hawaii for their 35th anniversary, and Alaska for their 45th anniversary, which they enjoyed. In 2015, they relocated to Lincoln City to be closer to family.

Maggie's home was always filled with family, friends and neighbors dropping by to visit and share food, drink and conversation. Some of her favorite activities were cooking and baking (she was a master at both), gardening, playing pinochle, sewing, knitting and volunteering at church.

She also hosted Bible studies in her home throughout the years. She enjoyed attending many of her granddaughters' activities, and was proud of them.

Maggie was active in the Lutheran Women's Missionary League and Good Shepherd Auxiliary (now Bethesda Auxiliary). She spent many hours volunteering for both. She served as Oregon Unit president for the auxiliary, in addition to other offices over the years. She received the Cross and Bell Award from the auxiliary for her service.

She was an avid Portland Trail Blazers fan, and attended games with Frank when possible.

Maggie was blessed with some wonderful caregivers at Hillside Place as well as privately, most recently Katie Ward, who was an angel and cared for her faithfully.

Our family would like to thank all who supported her through the years. Know that your caring, especially during the pandemic, is greatly appreciated. We would also like to thank everyone at Samaritan Evergreen Hospice, who made her last 15 months more comfortable.

She received letters and cards from family and friends, including weekly letters from longtime neighbor Sandy (and Bill) Bergeron, as well as many cards from Theresa's friend and classmate, Rebecca Glen. To all who called, wrote to and visited Maggie, we thank you! Your contact was a lifeline to her, especially during the pandemic.

Maggie is survived by her husband of 66 years, Frank; children, Mark Royston (Gary), of San Jose, California, and Theresa Winn (Jeff), of Lincoln City; granddaughters, Janelle Winn and Olivia Winn; brother, Ed Stahl (Pat), of Salem; and many beloved nieces, nephews and friends.

Maggie loved flowers but, more importantly, she loved to help others. Please consider a donation to one of the following organizations in lieu of flowers: Bethesda Auxiliary, Oregon Unit, in care of Eileen Fligg, financial secretary, 800 N.E. 238th Place, Wood Village, OR., 97060; St. Peter the Fisherman Lutheran Church; Samaritan Evergreen Hospice — coast; or the Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research.

A memorial service will be held on June 3 at 11 a.m. at St. Peter the Fisherman Lutheran Church, 1226 S.W. 13th St. in Lincoln City.

Arrangements are being entrusted to Pacific View Memorial Chapel.
