Home and Chef Tour returns, benefiting local youth

BY M.J. CODY

"We're so excited to be doing this again," Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific chapter president Mary Davies said. Davies is returning to manage the league's 13th Home and Chef Tour, a fundraising event set to take place on Saturday.

"We had to skip a couple of years," Davies said, referring to the tour's pandemic hiatus, "but we hope to be an annual event again. People love having the opportunity to visit some wonderful places and get a glimpse into otherwise private locations, as well as being a great social event," she added.

This year's event, themed "Iconic Astoria," will feature five historic properties within the city. Each of these homes will be paired with a local chef, who will serve tasty morsels to guests throughout the tour.

Besides offering a memorable experience, the tour also supports efforts to assist local youth. "The tour is our key fundraising event for our programs that support Clatsop County
