

Infinity gymnasts second at state

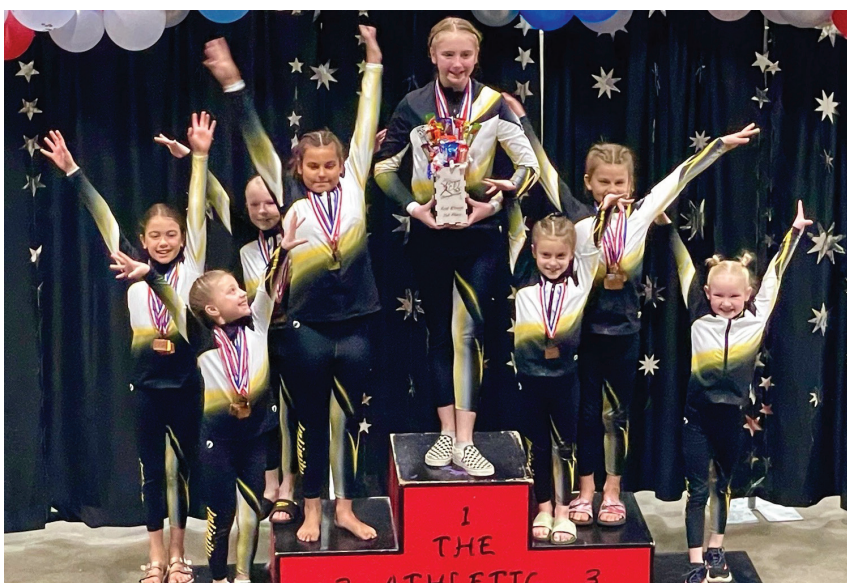

The Astorian

Athletes from Astoria's Infinity Gymnastics had a big weekend recently in the Oregon Xcel state championships, held April 2 and April 3 at The Athletic Edge on the state fairgrounds in Salem.

In team awards, Infinity's Bronze squad took third place in their division, behind Silverton Gymnastics and Westside.

Individually, Julia Dornbleuth was a regional qualifier in the senior division (Platinum level), while at the Bronze level Gia Davis had a first place effort on the vault (9.70), and Ila Stunkard took first on bars (9.75), and second place on the beam and the all-around (37.150).

At the Silver level, Katelyn Halasz was first place in the all-around (36.950) and second place on bars (9.675); and Sloane Oman took second on the floor exercise (9.10).

The Knappa Loggers recorded their second three-game sweep of the season, pounding Gaston 7-0 and 19-1 in a doubleheader Friday at Gaston. The Loggers beat Gaston 5-4 earlier in the week.

Knappa (6-0 in the Northwest League) had a combined one-hitter with 14 strikeouts and one walk from Drew Miller and Jaxon Dietrichs in the opener, and the Loggers rapped out 12 hits in just five at-bats in Game 2. The Greyhounds (0-6 overall) committed nine errors on the day.

Knappa's Tanner Jackson had three doubles and Mark Miller had two triples, as the Loggers ran their league win streak to 54 in a row.

Banks tops Astoria on golf dual

The Banks boys golf team won by a comfortable margin Thursday in a Cow-apa League dual match versus Astoria at the Astoria Golf & Country Club.

Led by Aaron Brown and Jake Walters — who both shot a 1-over par 73 — the Braves posted a 309 team score, to Astoria's 445.

Between them, Brown and Walters had eight birdies.

Astoria was led again by freshman Ian McHone with a 99, followed by teammate Judd Field (108). Banks' third and fourth golfers were Ben Cost (76) and Bo Wormington (87).

Rounding out Astoria's top four were Jack Phillips (112) and Jase Junes (126).

Seaside coach Jim Poestch "told me that Banks was loaded, and I can certainly see why," said Astoria coach Peter Roscoe. "All their top guys have great swings that let them pound the ball deep, but they back it up with great touch on and around the greens. Our season is still early, but our guys have already seen some top-notch golfers."
