Astoria hosts Cowapa girls golf championship

The Astorian

The Astoria and Seaside girls golf teams wrapped up their seasons Monday at the Astoria Golf & Country Club, where the Lady Fishermen hosted the one-day Cowapa League championship match.

Valley Catholic — which won the state-qualifying district tournament a week earlier, completed the sweep with a league championship in Monday's match.

The Valiants shot a 390 team score to finish ahead of Banks (403), with Astoria (433) the only other complete team.

Valley Catholic's Challin Kim carded an even-par 73, well ahead of Banks sophomore Jocelyn Janecek (89), the only other golfer under 90.

The top 10 individuals earned all-league honors, and the list included three Astoria golfers, as Caleigh Peterson took fifth overall with a 95, followed by Katie Jo Strimple-Fields (sixth, with a personal best 100), and Marlee Both (eighth, 110).

Peterson had a birdie on the fourth hole, and Strimple-Fields birdied the 16th.

Rounding out the Astoria scores were Ava Davis (128) and Mia Rochon (154).

Seaside's Holly Fergus placed 10th with a 113 for all-league honors.

Knappa softball edges Warrenton, 7-6

The Astorian

Two teams in the running for league championships at their respective levels met on the field Tuesday afternoon for an unscheduled Clatsop Clash softball game.

Knappa replaced Dayton for a nonleague contest at Warrenton, where the Loggers and Warriors saved their best for last, in a 7-6 Knappa win.

Sitting at second place in the 2A Northwest League, Knappa snapped a 4-4 tie with three runs in the top of the seventh inning, then held on for the win over the Warriors, the first place team in the 3A Coastal Range League.

Knappa began a three-run rally with two outs in the top of the seventh, starting with a single by Hannah Dietrichs.

Patricia Lebo followed with a single, and Dietrichs scored the go-ahead run on a single to right by Taylor Pass.

Lily Simpson had Knappa's fourth straight single, scoring Lebo and Pass for a 7-4 lead.

Warrenton answered with three straight hits in the bottom of the seventh, starting with a double by Avyree Miethe, who took third on a single by Emma Smith.

London O'Brien followed with a single up the middle that score both runners.

With O'Brien at second and still no outs, Dietrichs retired the next three batters in order to secure the win. She allowed nine hits with nine strikeouts with one walk, while Miethe gave up 10 hits, with eight strikeouts and two walks. Emily Larson had three hits for the Loggers.

Warrenton sweeps Tigers

Warrenton scored two wins Monday, a 6-5, 15-3 doubleheader sweep over Clatskanie.

The Tigers had seven hits to six for the Warriors in the opener, but stranded 10 baserunners. Warrenton's Emma Smith had a double, while Avyree Miethe drove in three runs.

Warrenton pounded out 14 hits in Game 2, with Miethe tossing a five-hitter with eight strikeouts and three walks. Kaylie Poe was 3-for-3 and drove in four runs.

Nestucca 15, Knappa 8

With first place at stake in the Northwest League softball standings, Nestucca posted a 15-8 win over the fifth-ranked Knappa Loggers, Monday at Knappa.

Astoria softball blanks Seaside, 10-0

The Astorian

In a Clatsop Clash softball showdown Tuesday, Astoria pounded out three home runs in a 10-0 win over Seaside at CMH Field.

With the Cowapa League championship securely locked up, the Lady Fish had homers from Avery Biederman, Tenley Matteucci and Nay-omi Holmstedt, while Holmstedt added a double and drove in four runs.

Pitcher Maddie Wilkin allowed one hit with 13 strikeouts and one walk.

Winners of 16 in a row and tuning up for a possible state championship run later this month, Astoria has scheduled nonleague games with Stayton on Monday and Yamhill-Carlton on May 19.

Seaside baseball wins Clatsop Clash

The Astorian

Most of the action took place in the sixth inning in the second Clatsop Clash of the baseball season, as Seaside hosted Astoria Monday at Broadway Field.

The Gulls held a slim 1-0 lead through five innings, and the sixth inning saw two lead changes, resulting in an eventual 4-2 win for Seaside.

It was the second league win for the Gulls, 7-10 overall. Astoria (2-8) is a half-game behind Seaside in the standings.

The two teams were scheduled to meet Wednesday at Astoria.

In Monday's game, the Fishermen scored two runs in the top of the sixth, when Teague Palmberg reached on a one-out error. Niko Boudreau followed with a triple to right field, scoring Palmberg.

Moments later, Boudreau scored the go-ahead run on a sacrifice bunt by Karson Hawkins.

Seaside rallied in the bottom of the sixth, starting with a one-out error.

Tallen Kraushaar's single scored Jake White and tied the game at 2-2, and the Gulls tacked on two runs when Tanner Kraushaar reached on an error in the Astoria outfield, scoring Tallen Kraushaar and Lawson Talamantez.

Talamantez retired the side in order in the top of the seventh, finishing his complete game three-hitter with seven strikeouts and no walks.

Hawkins took the loss, scattering four hits (two by Talamantez) with six strikeouts and a walk.

Loggers 8, Pirates 5

After a 10-day layoff, the Knappa baseball team returned to action Tuesday with a Northwest League game at Neah-Kah-Nie, where the Loggers picked up right where they left off.

Knappa overcame an early 2-0 deficit, built an 8-2 lead, then held off the Pirates for an 8-5 win.

Logger pitchers Nick Rusinovich, Jaxon Dietrichs and Drew Miller allowed just three hits, with 13 strikeouts and four walks.

Jude Miller drove in four runs for Knappa, which officially locked up yet another league title, winning their 64th straight league contest since 2017 and 31st win in a row over Neah-Kah-Nie since 2011.
