

Tokeland museum, artists celebrate Shoalwater Bay

Tribe displays artwork while local makers benefit schools

BY PATRICK WEBB

The Shoalwater Bay Tribal Community Library and Heritage Museum will highlight a lively selection of works by native and regional artists, including a carved alder bowl by museum director Earl Davis, photography by Davis' son, Kota, beadwork by Mary Johnson and handcrafted jewelry by metalsmith Judith Altruda, with a festival throughout Saturday and Sunday. The museum will also continue to host

See Page 5

Native Art Festival

Shoalwater Bay Tribal Community Library and Heritage Museum
4115 State Route 105, Tokeland, Washington

10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday. Admission is free.

The Franklin Apartments

Providing Elegance & Efficiency to Downtown Astoria for Over 100 Years

1432 Franklin Avenue
Community Property Management

503-325-5678

Tribal artist Kota Davis, 19, will exhibit their work at the Shoalwater Bay Tribal Community Library and Heritage Museum during the upcoming Native Art Festival.