

Attendees at a previous Tenor Guitar Gathering pose with instruments before a ride on the Astoria Riverfront Trolley.

TENOR GUITAR GATHERING WELCOMES MUSICIANS, ADMIRERS

Festival returns for a 12th year, with workshops, jam sessions and concerts

BY KATHERINE LACAZE

Gathering together musicians and music fans with jam sessions, performances and daily workshops, the Tenor Guitar Gathering is set to return to Astoria for a 12th year this weekend with great excitement.

The festival, which is presented by the Tenor Guitar Foundation, will once again bring musicians together after a two-year hiatus. Events will span both Friday and Saturday, from morning lessons to evening concerts, all primarily hosted at the Charlene Larsen Center for the Performing Arts.

The weekend begins at 9 a.m. on Friday with a series of open jam sessions on the performing arts center's main stage, followed by a trolley ride at 10 a.m. along the Astoria

Musician Tyler Jackson is set to perform at the Tenor Guitar Gathering.

OREGON SUNSTONE

Crafting fine jewelry since 1998.

Holly McHone
JEWELERS

503-325-8029
www.hollymchone.com

1150 Commercial St.
Astoria, OR 97103