ASTORIA — The June Astoria Art Walk will be held from noon to 8 p.m. on Saturday.

Angi D Wildt Gallery, 106 10th St.

Featuring new paintings from Dale Landrum and images from photographer Angi D Wildt. Local artist Christine Kende will also host a showing and discussion of impressionistic techniques and abstract fused glass art from 4 to 7 p.m.

ARTstoria Gallery, 1168 Commercial St. #205

Climb the stairs of a historic building to find colorful original paintings, cards, unique journals, decorative pillows, images and prints from artist Connie Dillon.

Ashriver Woodworks, 229 14th St.

This family business specializes in epoxy furniture and home decor as well as reclaimed furniture built to last. The shop will also host live music and refreshments.

Astoria Art Loft, 106 3rd St.

Featuring the theme “Beloved Pets and Other Critters,” with photos, paintings and drawings of beloved pets.

Astoria Visual Arts, 1000 Duane St.

Celebrating Pride month with interdisciplinary artists Fritha Strand and Leif J Lee. Strand explores the visual linguistics of landscape, including sky, land and water, while Lee practices drawing the unseen on paper and fabric to question heteronormative ideas of perception.

Bridge and Tunnel Bottleshop & Taproom, 1390 Duane St.

Featuring the work of Astoria photographer Rob Preston, whose interest lies in the behavior of light and the perspectives found through the camera lens.

Brumfield Gallery, 1033 Marine Drive

Showing the “Duality” series from artist Emily McPhie, whose oil paintings often feature women and children.

Brut Wine Bar, 240 10th St.

Featuring watercolor art from Carrie Harper, whose works are inspired by Alaskan auroras and natural beauty.

Cambium Gallery, 1030 Duane St.

Inviting the community to the opening of “skin, color, space” by Julio Aleman. This personal show explores ideas of skin and identity with color interactions that push and pull. The gallery will also celebrate ‘Bien Chingona’ by Julio Aleman, on display at Cambium Gallery.

Arty and Ginger’s Pride Party at Labor Temple Diner and Bar.

Cargo, 241 11th St.

Featuring handmade garments, shoes and toys by Mary De la Sahndra. This month’s show focuses on supporting the local queer community.

Gathered Bakeshop & Market, 1512 12th St.

This shop and market will feature the work of local artist Carrie Williams.

Foragers, 1004 Marine Drive

Hosting a Queer Makers’ Market, featuring nearly a dozen artisans and makers alongside DJ selections and live music.

Forsythea, 1124 Commercial St.

Featuring beaded mosaics and drawings from artist Zemula Fleming, with a focus on the Medieval and Byzantine. Fleming will be on site from 4 to 6 p.m.

Imogen, 240 11th St.

Featuring “Enclosed Worlds(s),” a new collection of painting and sculpture from artists Jill Mayberg and Kim Murton. Mayberg’s abstract paintings playfully explore pattern, shape and color, while Murton’s terra cotta sculpture focuses on whimsical plant life imagery.

Munktiki, 1241 Duane St.

Featuring new paintings in the gallery’s “100 Faces” series.
