

Arts council hosts inaugural Make Music Clatsop County event

ASTORIA – The Arts Council of Clatsop County will host an inaugural event titled Make Music Clatsop County, a collaboration of local venues, on Tuesday.

Launched as part of Make Music Day, celebrated across over 1,000 cities worldwide, the event invites individuals and groups to share music via time slots at participating venues.

Venues include the Ten Fifteen Theater, Charlene Larsen Center for the Performing Arts, The Lot and The SEA Crab House, while confirmed musicians include Astoria Ukulele Orchestra and Cascadia Chamber Opera.

For more information, or to sign up as a performer or venue, visit www.makemusic-day.org/clatsopcounty.

Winner of North Coast Writer's Residency announced

ASTORIA – The Writer's Guild and Astoria Visual Arts have announced the winner of this year's North Coast Writer's Residency.

Jennifer D. Munro, of Albany, will spend one week working on a collection of essays titled "The Twelfth Mom." The collection focuses on challenges of being an adoptive parent while chronicling a love of birdwatching.

A reception and public reading from the project will be held on Nov. 5 at Astoria Visual Arts. For more information, visit www.astoriavisualarts.org

Astoria Studio Collective offers zine making workshop

ASTORIA – Astoria Studio Collective will host a workshop focused on creating zines, small self-directed magazines, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Hosted by writer, educator and illustrator Heather Douglas, the workshop will guide participants through zine making as a tool for social change, working with materials like paper scraps, images and drawings.

Tuition for the workshop is $25 for members of The Writer's Guild and $35 for nonmembers. For more information, visit www.thewritersguild.org.

Hoffman Center offers monotype workshop

MANZANITA – Hoffman Center for the Arts will offer an introduction to monotypes and monoprints from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Led by artist and educator Ben Rosenberg, the weekend course will cover the process of printing on monotype through discussion and demonstration. This unique process consists of pressing paper against a painted or inked surface.

Tuition for the workshop is $240, plus a $10 fee for materials. Proof of COVID vaccination required for all attendees. For more information, visit www.hoffmanarts.org.
