

Hikers will tour the Proto-Cathedral of St. James the Greater in Vancouver.

Angora Hiking Club hosts journey through historic sites

ASTORIA – Angora Hiking Club will set off from Astoria to explore sites throughout Vancouver, Washington, at 9 a.m. on June 25.

The group will meet on Marine Drive between 2nd and 3rd streets before heading off. The tour will begin with a guided exploration of gothic revival art and architecture at the Proto-Cathedral of St. James the Greater at 11 a.m., followed by a trip to the Vancouver Saturday Market.

At 12:45 p.m., the group will meet at Fort

Vancouver National Historic Site, where hikers are invited to learn about more about local history.

Registration is required for this event, with a deadline of Wednesday. To register, contact Kathleen Hudson at khhudson12@gmail.com. Angora Hiking Club member dues are $10 annually. This hike requires a National Parks Land Pass or additional $10 fee. Dogs are prohibited on hikes. For more information, visit angoras.club.

Classical guitarist to perform at Coaster Theatre

CANNON BEACH – Classical guitarist Aaron Larget-Caplan will perform at Coaster Theatre Playhouse at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday.

Exploring transcribed masterpieces, traditional Spanish dances and a set of recent compositions, the concert, titled “Dreams & New Creations,” will offer a sampling of Larget-Caplan’s work.

Admission for the show is $25. Proof of COVID vaccination required for all attendees. For more information and to buy tickets, visit www.coastertheatre.com.

Classical guitarist Aaron Larget-Caplan is set to perform at the Coaster Theatre Playhouse on Saturday.

BRIEFS

Miska Gallery offers workshop featuring sumi ink

CANNON BEACH – Miska Studio Gallery will offer “Sandpipers in the Surf,” an art workshop featuring sumi ink, from 2 to 5 p.m. on Tuesday.

Led by artist Carol Ross, the workshop will guide participants through a process of drawing and tracing on clay board. Each attendee will bring home a painting ready for display.

Tuition for the workshop is $150. Seating will be limited. For more information, visit www.cannonbeach.org.

North Coast Land Conservancy hosts barn picnic fundraiser

SEASIDE – North Coast Land Conservancy will host a barn picnic at Circle Creek Conservation Center at noon on Wednesday.

This event offers a chance to explore the conservancy’s flagship property while sharing a picnic lunch with family, friends and neighbors. The event will also feature live music and guided hikes, as well as a wine pull fundraiser benefiting coastal conservation efforts.

Attendees are asked to bring lunch and other picnic supplies, such as chairs and blankets. Twenty five bottles of wine will be available at $20 each. For more information, visit www.nclctrust.org.

Author and illustrator to give presentation in Clatskanie

CLATSKANIE – The Clatskanie Library District will host author and illustrator Vera Brosgol at the Clatskanie Cultural Center at 4 p.m. on Saturday.

The event signals the start of the library’s summer reading program. Brosgol, who has written graphic novels and worked as a storyboard artist, will discuss her work and engage in drawing exercises with guests.

This event is free and open to the public. The first 100 guests will receive a copy of “Be Prepared” by Brosgol. For more information, call Clatskanie Library director Maryanne Hirning at 503-728-3732.

ORIGINAL FINE ART

on the waterfront • port of ilwaco, wa marie-powell.com • 360-244-0800

marie
POWELL
GALLERY