

THIS WEEKEND'S OUR PICKS JUNE 23, 2022

Hailey Hoffman/The Astorian
Mother and son duo Lynne and Eisha Hopper are the owners of the Neah-Kah-Nie Bistro in Manzanita.

Neah-Kah-Nie Bistro, Manzanita

This relaxed coastal dining spot features a variety of Northwest favorites, including oysters, prawns and specialty salads alongside an expansive selection of wines.

Lydia Ely/The Astorian
The interior of the Green Door Cafe is filled with plants and vintage furnishings. The Astoria eatery serves plant-based dishes.

The Green Door, Astoria

With refreshing plant-based dishes and gluten free options, this downtown Astoria eatery is the perfect spot for a savory lunch or quick meeting. Don't forget to try their house made cold press juices.

Jonathan Williams
Viewers look at 'Coming Home: World War I and the Centennial of the American Legion,' an exhibit at the Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum, in 2019.

Columbia-Pacific Heritage Museum, Ilwaco, Washington

Discover the rich history of life at the intersection of the river and sea at this unique local museum. View an immersive gallery of the Long Beach Peninsula's resort era in "Grand Hotels of the North Beach Peninsula," on display through July 9.

North Coast Land Conservancy
North Coast Land Conservancy volunteer Steve Warner of Seaside pauses while hand-pulling knotweed at Necanicum Forest Habitat Reserve.

North Coast Land Conservancy, Seaside

With a wide selection of interpretive walks, volunteer events and local excursions, this coastal land trust is all about giving back to the community. Get to know them by joining a summer event.
