

Liberty Theatre presents two showings of ‘The Jungle Book’

ASTORIA – Two presentations of “The Jungle Book” will be performed by the Missoula Children’s Theatre at 3 and 5:30 p.m. on Saturday.

The show will take place as part of Missoula Children’s Theatre’s international touring project, and will feature roles filled by over 50 local students.

Admission is $5. For more information and to buy tickets, visit www.libertyastoria.org.

‘The Jungle Book’ will be performed at the Liberty Theatre at both 3 and 5:30 p.m. on Saturday.

present on downtown streets. Participating shops will feature an AstoriUS day sticker designed by local artist Jaz Carpenter. For more information, visit www.astoriadowntown.com.

Author to give presentation on historical novel in Seaside

SEASIDE – Author Deena Lindstedt will discuss her latest historical novel, “Lady of the Play,” in the community room at the Seaside Library at 2 p.m. on Saturday.

A book signing and time for audience questions will follow the talk. Lindstedt’s novel explores the Elizabethan era while weaving in the modern tale of a high school history teacher set on uncovering details about William Shakespeare’s past.

This talk is free and open to the public. For more information, visit www.seasidelibrary.org.

‘Performathon’ arrives at Ten Fifteen Theater

ASTORIA – Actors, musicians, artists and makers are invited to display their skills at Performathon, an annual fundraiser held at the Ten Fifteen Theater, starting at 7:15 p.m. on Friday.

The event will feature 24 hours of performances, lasting through 7:15 p.m. Saturday.

Admission is $15. COVID-19 vaccination required for all performers and attendees. Auditions are not required to perform. For more information and to sign up for a performing slot, visit www.thetenfifteentheater.com.

Angora Hiking Club to explore Beard’s Hollow

ASTORIA – The Angora Hiking Club will host an exploration and hike at Beards Hollow, near Ilwaco, Washington, at 1 p.m. on Wednesday.

Hikers, led by Jan Coughlin, will meet in a parking lot on Marine Drive, between Second and Third streets in Astoria.

Angora Hiking Club member dues are $10 annually, though participants do not need to be club members. For more information or to register, contact Kathleen Hudson at 503-861-2802.

Seaside goes ‘against the grain’ at frisbee tournament

SEASIDE – Frisbee teams will return to the beach this weekend for the Against The Grain Ultimate Frisbee Tournament, running throughout Saturday and Sunday in Seaside.

The event will be set up with a minimum team size of 10 and suggested size between 12 and 14. For more information and to register, visit www.seasideor.com.

AstoriUS day welcomes events, sales, performances

ASTORIA – More than 30 local businesses will host a variety of events, performances and sales in celebration of AstoriUS Day from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday.

Events planned will include a ribbon cutting for the new location of Kit’s Apothecary and Foragers at 11 a.m., a magic show at The Magic Shop at 1:30 p.m., a scavenger hunt at Lucy’s Books and sidewalk sales at Gulley’s Butcher Shop, Purple Cow Toys, Lumen Community Wellness and more.

Entertainers and buskers will also be

Writer and musician Nick Jaina will lead a memoir writing workshop at the Sou’wester Lodge.

Writing workshop at Sou’wester Lodge will focus on memoir

SEAVIEW, Wash. – Writer and musician Nick Jaina will host a workshop focused on memoir writing at the Sou’wester Lodge from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday.

Participants will focus on sequential events, memory and writing techniques to develop strategies for storytelling and personal reflection.

Admission is $20. For more information, visit www.souwesterlodge.com.