OBITUARIES

Lucille 'Lou' Irene Burke

Knappa
Nov. 3, 1920 – July 18, 2022

Lucille "Lou" Irene Burke passed away peacefully, among loving family, after an extraordinary life of 101 years.

Lucille was proud of her Finnish heritage, and embodied the "sisu" spirit, as she lived independently the last 24 years of her life. She had an active mind, keeping current on social, political and family affairs until the past year.

Lucille Burke

Her memory was legendary. She loved to tell of her early life, and easily recalled events as far back as her childhood and school years. She appreciated the history and progress she witnessed in her long life, and would willingly share with anyone interested.

Lucille was born in Clatskanie to John A. and Mary P. Karvonen, and was the last surviving daughter of 11 siblings. Her father was a successful gillnet fisherman and a stalwart member of the Finnish Apostolic Lutheran Church. Her mother was a homemaker, and did domestic jobs outside of the home.

Lucille attended several community grade schools before enrolling at Clatskanie High School, where she was a top student and in the glee club, plays, prom and other activities.

Bradford Burke came into her life when she moved to Midland, and soon became her loving husband of 62 years. They began a life of farming in Midland, and raised six children: four girls, Mary, Julie, Kathryn and Barbara, and two boys, Michael and Steve.

In 1940, Brad began working at Wauna Lumber Co. until the mill closed in 1958. The family then moved to Gold Beach, where Lou enjoyed living for the next 46 years on the banks of the Rogue River.

After Brad's passing in 1998, she returned to the Lower Columbia area to a new home built for her in Knappa.

Surviving Lucille are all six of her children, Mary Burke, Julie (Larry) Parnes, Kathryn Meade, Michael (Susie) Burke, Steve (Karen) Burke and Barbara (Howard) Budweg; also numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services and interment will be held at Prairie Cemetery (aka Knappa Prairie Cemetery) at 1 p.m. Saturday, followed by a reception, also at the cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Knappa Prairie Cemetery or the charity of one's choice.

Please sign our online guest book at caldwellsmortuary.com

Lucille Rose Easley

Happy Valley
Feb. 24, 1932 — July 10, 2022

Lucille Easley

Lucille Rose Easley was born Feb. 24, 1932, in Marshfield, and passed away peacefully on July 10 at her home in Happy Valley.

She was preceded in death by her husband, the love of her life, Joe Easley.

Survivors include three daughters and their husbands, Becky and Norman Whitten, Terri and Tim Baltus and Patti and Tom Timothy; as well as many beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, a gift to support Lucille's favorite cause, the Liberty Theatre in Astoria, would be appreciated (libertyastoria.org).

Jan (Roman) Hinman

Union, Washington
Nov. 9, 1942 — June 18, 2022

Jan Hinman lived her life with enthusiasm, curiosity and determination. She was born Janice Louise Roman on Nov. 9, 1942, in Denver, Colorado, to Margaret and Bikie Roman. For 3 1/2 years, she fought a battle with cancer with dignity, humor and a positive attitude. She passed away on June 18.

Jan Hinman

Her family settled in Astoria after her dad served in World War II. Jan's two siblings, Steve and Barbie, were born in Astoria. Jan attended St. Mary, Star of the Sea School, graduating in 1960.

While in high school, she became a stringer for the Astorian Budget, reporting on sporting events for her high school — long before women were accepted as sports reporters. The highlight of her early journalism career was covering the Oregon Class B state basketball championship, which Star of the Sea won.

In 1960, she left Astoria for college at Seattle University. This high school experience led to a lifelong career as a journalist and writer. It also led to her enduring love of sports. Jan was an enthusiastic fan of the Seattle Mariners, Seattle Seahawks and University of Washington football, as well as a fan of the now-departed Seattle Sonics.

She moved to Seattle to attend Seattle University, and four years later married Orlo Hinman. They purchased a house in West Seattle in early 1966, where Jan lived for the next 47 years. In that time, their two daughters, Chris and Julie, grew into young women and adulthood, marrying and forming families of their own.

She also graduated from the University of Washington as a journalist, and went on to work at the South King County newspapers, and later at the Bellevue Journal-American. Following nearly five years working at Boeing in internal communication, she formed her own business, writing for government and corporate clients.

A constant client for more than 20 years was the Holland America Line, where she was able to combine her writing career and her enduring love of travel. On her own, and on behalf of her client, she was able to travel to Asia, New Zealand and Australia, Alaska, Mexico, Hawaii, Canada, Europe and more.

Jan said she not only watched her kids grow up in her West Seattle home, she also "witnessed Seattle grow up from our living room." In 1962, Seattle had welcomed the Space Needle. When Jan moved into her West Seattle home, the SeaFirst building, also known as "the box the Space Needle came in," was just being built. As the first Seattle skyscraper, the building became the foundation of Seattle's present-day skyline.

By 2011, Seattle was "all grown up," and it was time to look elsewhere for a quieter, yet active place to retire. Her search took her to Alderbrook Golf and Yacht Club in the tiny town of Union, Washington, at the southernmost end of Hood Canal. She and her daughter, Julie, bought a house in the community, intending to use it as a vacation home for several years.

However, the pull of the beautiful countryside, the welcoming, generous and supportive community, the busy, yet relaxed life centered around golf and social activities at the clubhouse, soon lured them both to abandon the bustle of Seattle and live full time at Alderbrook.

Jan belonged to the Ladies Club, the Yacht Club, the Land Yacht Camping Club, served on various committees and participated in many activities, including helping with the community newsletter, The Foremast.

She is survived by her daughter, Chris Griffin, and son-in-law, Jeff Griffin, of Bellingham, Washington; daughter, Julie Hinman, of Union; grandchildren Katy Waddell, of London, and Alex Waddell, Annie Waddell and Jessica Waddell, all of Bellingham; sister, Barb Jenkins, and brother-in-law, Reg Jenkins; and sister-in-law, Becky Roman.

In addition, she is survived by nephews, Monte and Ryan Reed, Vince and Luke Roman and Todd Jenkins, and nieces, Sarah Dielman, Molly Yeend and Kelly Cope, and their respective spouses and many children. Also surviving are aunt and uncle Betty and Dick Huckestein; and cousins, Debbie Inman, James, Dan and Jeff Huckestein and Carol Neal.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, Steve; and her son-in-law, Craig Campbell, Julie's husband.

SPORTS

Tillamook undefeated in three-day tourney

The Astorian

The final weekend of baseball for the local 17-and-under teams came to a close Sunday at Tapiola Park, with the last three games of a three-day, nine-game round-robin tournament.

The tournament was originally planned as a seven-team bracket tournament, before Clatskanie canceled its appearance right before the start of Friday's games.

Instead, Astoria Ford was the host for a nine-game round-robin event, with Ilwaco, Knappa, Seaside, Tillamook and Warrenton.

Tillamook finished with a perfect 3-0 record, as the Cheesemakers scored victories over Warrenton (4-1), Astoria (a 10-run victory) and Seaside (13-4), while Ilwaco and Warrenton each finished 2-1, followed by the Gulls (1-2) and Astoria (0-3).

Seaside topped the seven-team district with an 11-1 regular season record, but came up short against Ilwaco on Friday, and lost a 13-4 decision to Tillamook in Sunday's finale.

Ilwaco capped a successful tournament with an 11-10 victory Sunday over Knappa.

After outhitting Seaside 14-4 in Friday's win, Ilwaco scored six runs in the second inning against Knappa in Sunday's game, for an early six-run lead.

The Fishermen were saved by the bell, as the Loggers rallied from an early 8-2 deficit, scoring three runs in the fifth and two in the sixth before the game was stopped due to a time limit. Knappa almost certainly would have added more runs in the seventh, if the Loggers had had the chance.

"I am sure we would have, but that's OK," said Knappa coach Jeff Miller. "We got 19 players into the game and enjoyed the great weather all weekend. Good, fun, competitive games all summer. We view summer as strictly developmental."

In Warrenton's 13-3 victory over Astoria Ford, Warrior pitching outlasted Astoria's in a contest that featured 12 walks.

Warrenton's Wyatt Bond had a key two-run single in the second inning, Cam'Ron Daniels had a two-run hit to right in the third, and eighth grader-to-be R.J. Thornton had a run-scoring single in a fifth inning rally for the Warriors, who were missing brothers Talon and Tyson McGrorty from the lineup.

Follow us on Facebook!
FACEBOOK.COM/DAILYASTORIAN

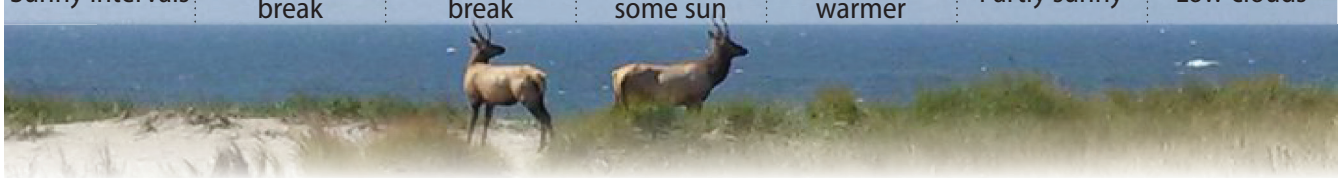
OREGON CAPITAL INSIDER
We're investing in Salem coverage when other news organizations are cutting back.
Get the inside scoop on state government and politics!

Going to the Dogs!
Welcome to the Astorian's
National Dog Day Photo Contest!
Submit your photo(s) before midnight Wednesday, August 3 here:
https://bit.ly/3yGCAX1
Voting takes place August 5 through August 19.
Top vote getters will be featured in the National Dog Day section published in the August 25 issue of The Astorian.

SEVEN-DAY FORECAST FOR ASTORIA

AccuWeather | Go to AccuWeather.com

TODAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY
68 57	68 55	69 57	71 56	80 57	73 59	74 58
Sunny intervals	Low clouds may break	Low clouds may break	Pleasant with some sun	Clouds and sun; warmer	Partly sunny	Low clouds



ALMANAC

Astoria through Tuesday

Temperatures

High/low	75/51
Normal high/low	68/54
Record high	91 in 1946
Record low	42 in 1977

Precipitation

Tuesday	Trace
Month to date	0.30″
Normal month to date	0.57″
Year to date	42.87″
Normal year to date	37.74″

Forecasts and graphics provided by AccuWeather, Inc. ©2022

UNDER THE SKY

Tonight's Sky: The world watched 53 years ago as NASA's Apollo 11 crew landed on the moon on July 20, 1969.

Source: Jim Todd, OMSI

SUN AND MOON

Sunrise today	5:45 a.m.
Sunset tonight	8:59 p.m.
Moonrise today	12:45 a.m.
Moonset today	3:13 p.m.

Last	New	First	Full
July 20	July 28	Aug 5	Aug 11

TODAY'S TIDES

Time	High (ft.)	Time	Low (ft.)
Astoria / Port Docks
8:27 a.m.	5.4	2:35 a.m.	1.0
8:32 p.m.	7.5	2:09 p.m.	1.9
Cape Disappointment
8:09 a.m.	5.1	1:57 a.m.	1.2
8:14 p.m.	7.4	1:28 p.m.	2.3
Hammond
8:15 a.m.	5.5	2:12 a.m.	1.2
8:20 p.m.	7.7	1:43 p.m.	2.2
Warrenton
8:22 a.m.	5.8	2:19 a.m.	1.1
8:27 p.m.	7.9	1:53 p.m.	2.0
Knappa
9:04 a.m.	5.7	3:36 a.m.	0.9
9:09 p.m.	7.7	3:10 p.m.	1.6
Depoe Bay
7:29 a.m.	5.2	1:30 a.m.	1.3
7:29 p.m.	7.7	12:51 p.m.	2.4

NATIONAL CITIES

City	Today Hi/Lo/W	Fri. Hi/Lo/W
Atlanta	90/72/t	90/74/t
Boston	90/72/t	92/72/s
Chicago	90/70/t	92/74/pc
Dallas	97/82/t	101/80/t
Denver	97/65/pc	99/68/c
Honolulu	86/76/pc	87/76/pc
Houston	100/79/pc	98/79/pc
Los Angeles	84/65/pc	82/65/s
Miami	91/80/pc	91/80/t
New York City	95/76/t	93/76/s
Phoenix	113/91/pc	112/89/pc
San Francisco	69/55/pc	69/55/pc
Wash., DC	97/76/t	95/77/s

Weather (W): s-sunny, pc-partly cloudy, c-cloudy, sh-showers, t-thunderstorms, r-rain, sf-snow flurries, sn-snow, i-ice.

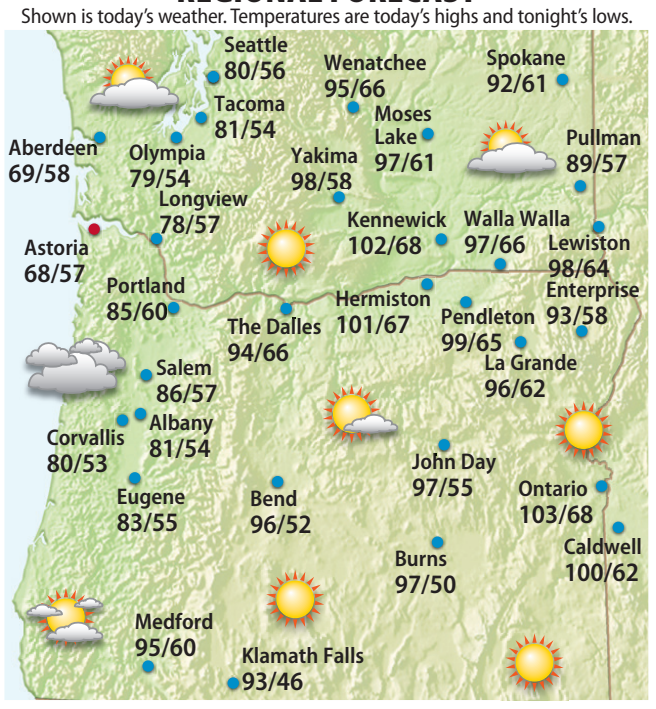
REGIONAL FORECAST

Shown is today's weather. Temperatures are today's highs and tonight's lows.



City	Today Hi/Lo/W	Fri. Hi/Lo/W
Baker City	94/51/s	85/47/s
Brookings	62/51/pc	68/56/pc
Ilwaco	66/58/pc	67/56/pc
Newberg	86/55/pc	84/55/s
Newport	62/52/c	64/50/pc

City	Today Hi/Lo/W	Fri. Hi/Lo/W
North Bend	66/54/pc	66/53/s
Roseburg	84/57/s	85/57/s
Seaside	69/57/pc	70/56/c
Springfield	84/55/pc	84/53/s
Vancouver	85/58/pc	79/59/pc