on Friday, with opening performances by Britnee Kellogg and Aaron Crawford.

While this year's fair will be missing a carnival, other highlights are plenty. "We're doing a magic show on Saturday," Brim said, highlighting a planned show.

Kids will also be able to enjoy a monster truck ride, an event Brim notes will return after a five-year absence. Other points of interest include an arcade, mini golf course, obstacle course, bounce house, mechanical bull and farm animal shows.

A demolition derby is scheduled for 11 a.m. on Saturday, followed by a fair auction at 2 p.m. Continuing the fair's five-day run, vendors slated for the event include Brew 22 Coffee, Chimnik Treats and ML Express.

"It's our event of the year," Brim said. "Just anything and everything to entertain people and have a good time when they come to the fair."
