Grange to serve crawfish, seafood in Brownsmead

BROWNSMEAD – The Brownsmead Grange will host a Seafood and Crawfish Boil from 5 to 7 p.m. on Saturday.

Local chefs will serve crawfish prepared in two ways: sweet Brownsmead style and spicy Louisiana style. Lemonade and coffee will be served; beer and wine will be available for purchase.

Cost for the event is $30 for adults and $10 for children under 12. For more information, visit www.facebook.com/brownsmeadgrange.

Hell's Belles to perform at Liberty Theatre

ASTORIA – Rock group Hell's Belles will perform at the Liberty Theatre at 7 p.m. on Friday.

Presenting a selection of AC/DC cover tunes, this group of women seek to empower rock fans and create a culture of inclusion while performing.

Admission for the show is $25 in advance, or $35 on the day of the show. Doors open at 6 p.m. Concessions will be available. For more information, visit www.libertyastoria.org.

4-H summer camp to be held at Coffenburg Lake

WARRENTON – A 4-H summer camp for students 10 to 12 will be held at Coffenburg Lake from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesday.

Campers will have the opportunity to learn about the outdoors, including wildfires, trees and fish, at Fort Stevens State Park.

Cost for the program is $10. Snacks and lunch will be provided. For more information, contact Sandra Carlson at 503-325-8573.

Angora Hiking Club leads journey at Oswald West State Park

ARCH CAPE – Angora Hiking Club will lead a group hike from Arch Cape to Short Sand Beach at 8 a.m. on Wednesday.

Hikers will meet at the Short Sand Beach parking lot within Oswald West State Park. Craig Holt will lead the group along this stretch of the Oregon Coast Trail, where hikers will explore Cape Falcon and spend a half hour on Short Sand Beach.

Angora Hiking Club member dues are $10 annually, though participants need not be club members to join this hike. For more information and to register, contact Arline LaMear at 503-338-6883.

Coaster Theatre hosts summer camp for young performers

CANNON BEACH – Coaster Theatre Playhouse will offer a summer camp aimed at performers between 8 and 12 years old beginning on Monday.

Camp attendees will focus on acting, singing and dancing while contributing to an original theater production. This year's camp theme is "Back to Broadway" and will focus on character development by young performers.

The camp will culminate in a pair of performances, set for 4:30 and 7 p.m. on Aug. 19. For more information, visit www.coastertheatre.com.
