Noon to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — The August Astoria Art Walk will be held from noon to 8 p.m. on Saturday.

Angi D Wildt Gallery, 106 10th St.

This gallery will feature a series of lively and vibrant paintings, each inspired by impressionistic works. Folk artist Bill W. Dodge will be visiting from 1 to 3 p.m. and seascape artist Nikole Rae Peacock will appear from 4 to 7 p.m.

The Anita Building, 1312 Commercial St.

Presenting “BorderXer,” an exhibit by Patricia Vazquez Gomez. This collection focuses on borders, both physical and symbolic, and their intersections with forms of systemic and individual oppression.

ARTstoria Gallery, 1168 Commercial St. #205

Climb the stairs of this historic building to step into a world of colorful original paintings, cards, journals, decorative pillows, photographs and prints by artist and owner Connie Dillon. Prints will be on sale, with discounts on stock items and orders.

Astoria Art Loft, 106 Third St.

Showing fiber arts, with a demonstration by artists from 1 to 4 p.m.

Astoria Visual Arts, 1000 Duane St.

Featuring “Reframing the Everyday,” a new exhibit from artists Tim Janchar and Roy Sanchez, exploring mental reframing of personal histories. Whether it is a myopic view or stepping back to take a landscape gaze, this collection looks at how personal framing defines identity.

Brumfield Gallery, 1033 Marine Drive

Showing a collection of ceramic pieces by artist Suzanne Long, as well as a new exhibit featuring the work of Mary Alayne Thomas and Andrea Benson.

Brut Wine Bar, 240 10th St.

With photography works by Jake Mullins, a Chicago transplant currently working with the U.S. Coast Guard in Astoria.

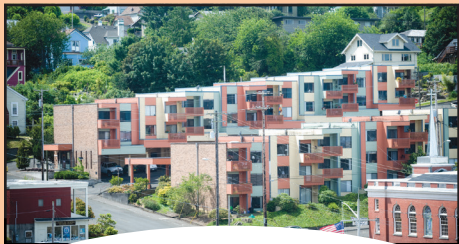

Cambium Gallery, 1030 Duane St.

Sharing the work of artist Leah Kohlenberg in “Beach Calming,” a solo show featuring the vegetation of North Coast beaches. Radiant fern forests, enchanting cypress trees and tall grasses reflect the meditation that these areas offer. Meet Kohlenberg from 4 to 6 p.m.
