Local food carts on hand will include Goon Dawgz, Sasquatch Sandwich Shop and Surf 2 Soul. Tres Bros will man the Shipwrecked Galley Food Court and a slew of vendors will present locally crafted items, plants and artwork.

Festival organization is a volunteer effort, helmed by the board of directors. “We can always use more volunteers,” Schack said. Volunteers will receive two free tickets as well as food and beverage vouchers.

Volunteers and organizers are optimistic about this year’s renewed start. “We felt shipwrecked and now it’s time to get out and have some fun,” Schack said. “It’s probably even more relevant this year.”
