

OBITUARIES

John George Chatalas

Portland

March 30, 1937 — July 27, 2022

Rev. John George Chatalas, 85, died peacefully in Portland on July 27 surrounded by his four children, Todd Chatalas, of Portland, Paul Chatalas, of Chicago, Elizabeth Chatalas Benoit, of London, and Hannah Chatalas, of Los Angeles. He was a loving father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend, and provided immeasurable comfort and guidance as a member of the clergy.

John was a Seattle native who was raised in, and will now return to, Mount Baker for memorial services. He was the eldest son of Goldie Bates Chatalas and Rep. William J. Chatalas, a Washington state Democrat.

He was a standout athlete throughout his life as a football player and all-city track star at Franklin High School, graduating in 1955, and continued to excel in sports at Whitworth University, his alma mater, graduating in 1960. John was also a recognized pole vaulter and lifelong passionate golfer in a family of golfers.

One of John's true loves was thoroughbred horse racing. He was an attendant at Longacres racetrack as a youth, and later bred and raised thoroughbreds in Seaside. His passion for racehorses and some of the injuries that befell them led to his invention of a portable ultrasound bone density monitor, which now forms the basis for technology used in medical institutions across the world.

His entrepreneurial streak also led to the creation of business and early advancement of business lines, such as for long-term care insurance, for which he served as an agent for years.

John's true calling was to Christ. He graduated from San Francisco Theological Seminary in California's Bay Area. After the seminary, he served as pastor of Wedgwood Presbyterian in Seattle, followed by Lidgerwood Presbyterian Church in Spokane, Washington. During his time in Spokane, he established the Nightwalk Ministry outreach program that was a model for other on-the-ground ecumenical non-profits providing outreach and services to at-risk and unhoused people.

He then became pastor at Pioneer Presbyterian Church in Warrenton, the oldest continuous Presbyterian church west of the Rocky Mountains, and he continued as a member of the clergy for decades. In all, John performed thousands of sermons, weddings, baptisms and funerals, and was always available to listen and provide counseling to countless people in their most critical times of need. His passion for doing Christ's work left an invaluable impact on every community that he served.

In addition to his four children, his life will be remembered by his many friends and family including his brothers, William B. Chatalas and Robert B. Chatalas; former spouses, Nancy Olson-Chatalas and Kathryn Aya; grandchildren, Wyatt Chatalas, Devon Chatalas and Axelle Benoit; nephews, Bret Chatalas and Marc Chatalas; and niece, Courtney Chatalas Gerlich.

A celebration of life service will be held at Mount Baker Park Presbyterian Church in Seattle at 1 p.m. Sept. 16. Please share your memories and find service details at: John-Chatalas.com

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be given to Operation Nightwatch Seattle or the North Coast Land Conservancy.

Wayne Edwin Jarvis

Warrenton

April 9, 1942 — Aug. 11, 2022

Wayne Edwin Jarvis passed away at his home on Aug. 11.

Wayne was born April 9, 1942, in White Salmon, Washington, to John and Bonita Jarvis.

Wayne graduated from Columbia High School in White Salmon. After graduation, he went to work for Tom Arnold Logging. Wayne moved to Shady Cove, where he worked for Wilson Logging. He then worked as a blaster's assistant building Interstate 5 over the Siskiyou Pass.

Later, Wayne moved to Clatsop County, where he worked on bridge construction and construction of the Wauna paper mill. He spent many years working for Bee-Line Roofing, before founding and opening his own business, Jarvis Roofing.

Wayne met his wife, Carolyn (CJ), at the Pig 'N Pancake in Astoria. They married in 1974 in Minden, Nevada. Carolyn preceded him in death in 2018.

Wayne was a devoted husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He and Carolyn worked together building Jarvis Roofing into a successful business. They enjoyed traveling, particularly in the Southwest U.S.

Wayne loved the outdoors, where he spent considerable time with his family. His favorite pastime was attending his grandchildren's and great-grandchildren's sporting and 4-H events.

Wayne was preceded in death by his mother, Bonita; father, John; wife, Carolyn; sisters, Doris and Ruth; and brother, John.

Wayne is survived by his daughters, Thressa Pounds (Wayne) and Donna Mullins (Duane); sons, Timothy Jarvis (Linda) and Kelly Jensen; grandchildren, Dusty McGroty (Joelle), Tyler McGroty (Tabitha), Jake Mullins (Emma), Cody Mullins (Lindsey), Cole Jensen (Jessica), Bailey Wheatley (Josh), Lindsey Gurr (Cole) and Ashley Gurr; great-grandsons, Tyson, Talon, Traxon, Cason, Deakon Wayne and Lucas; and great-granddaughters, Taya, Harper Kay, Rosie Lee, Kenzie and Molly.

He is also survived by his brother, Glen (Jane), their children and grandchildren, Shannon, Tony, Jimmy, Kyle, Daytona and Sawyer; his friend, Scott, with whom he traveled to many sporting events; and Ed, Luana and Audrey, his lunch dates.

A graveside service was held at Ocean View Cemetery in Warrenton on Aug. 19.

In memoriam, contributions can be made to the Wildlife Center of the North Coast, P.O. Box 1232, Astoria, OR., 97103.

Class of 2022 graduates are making their college debuts

By GARY HENLEY

The Astorian

The stage is bigger and the lights a little brighter for a group of former Clatsop County athletes who will be making their appearance at the collegiate level beginning this month.

A few Class of 2022 graduates are already suited up and ready to play this fall, including Seaside's Lawson Talamantez (Eastern Oregon football) and Warrenton's Avyree Miethe (volleyball at Blue Mountain Community College).

Talamantez and the Mountaineers open their season Aug. 27 in La Grande against Montana Tech.

Meanwhile, Miethe was in action Tuesday (along with Naselle's Peyton Dalton), when the Timberwolves opened the 2022 season at Walla Walla University.

In cross-country, Warrenton's Zander Moha is ready to run for Corban University in Salem, with the first meet (Cascade Collegiate Conference) scheduled for Sept. 9.

More local athletes will begin their college careers in the winter and spring.

Two Warrenton wrestlers have added their names to college rosters, signing letters of intent with Oregon schools.

Parker Greenawald (fourth place at state, 145 pounds), will wrestle at Southwestern Oregon Community College in Coos Bay; and teammate Alex Tapia (second place at state, 170) signed with Linfield University in McMinnville.

Meanwhile, former Warrior baseball player Jake Morrow, who recently completed his freshman season at Linn-Benton and initially was headed for the University of Washington, will suit up for the Washington State Cougars next school year.

Other signees among recently graduated seniors include Astoria's Colton McMaster.

The multistate champion thrower for the Fishermen track team will compete at Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire.

Other Class of 2022 Seaside athletes moving on to the next level include Cash Corder (Umpqua Community College basketball), Carson Kawasoe (Santa Clara golf) and Ryan Smith (Mt. Hood track).

Football players close out prep careers

While some athletes are moving on to the next level, three recently suited up and played their last football games as high school athletes.

Astoria's Trey Woodrich and Brayden Worwood, and Knappa's Tanner Jackson all played for the West squad in the annual East-West Shrine Game held Aug. 6 in Baker City.

Jackson went out with a bang, catching seven passes for 60 yards, including an 8-yard reception for the game's first touchdown.

The West won in overtime, 17-14, the first time in 69 years that the Shrine Game went to an overtime period.

We've gone ABOVE & BEYOND to make sure you are COMFORTABLE & SAFE at your next dental visit.

We have Infection Control Procedures in place for your safety & ours.

 In addition to a filtration system, external vacuum systems, air purifiers, and foggers, we have added negative pressure to all operatories. The safety and comfort of our patients has always been a priority at Klemp Family Dentistry. We are very proud of these innovations. Thank you for your continued confidence in all of us.

Excellence in challenging conditions. ★★★★★
Diane G.

I saw the highest standard of health safety practices in effect during my hygienist appointment today—much higher precautions than I'd seen in a local hospital when having tests last month. The new sanitation equipment and attention to patient safety at Klemp Family Dentistry is in keeping with a dental practice I consider cutting edge with respect to all my dental needs. It's wonderful having a world class dental practice here at the coast, one where I can have procedures performed for which I used to have to travel to a specialist in Portland. I have been a patient of several local dentists in the past, but none had the skill and, more importantly, the attention to patient comfort that Dr. Klemp provides.
