Northwest Carriage Museum celebrates 20th year

BY ALYSSA EVANS

One of Pacific County's most beloved spots is celebrating a momentous milestone this year.

The Northwest Carriage Museum, located in Raymond, Washington, is celebrating 20 years of spotlighting historic modes of travel. The museum will host a party, featuring cake, punch and giveaways, to commemorate the anniversary occasion on Saturday.

Husband-and-wife duo, Jerry and Laurie Bowman, run the museum. Jerry operates as the museum's board president and curator, while Laurie is the executive director. The Bowmans moved to the area in 2004 and started working at the museum shortly after.
