Banks beats Astoria in season opener

The Astorian

The last four meetings between the Banks Braves and Astoria Fishermen have all taken place at CMH Field — but the Braves aren't complaining. Why would they? Banks posted another win at Astoria's home on the hill, 28-0, in the 2022 football season opener Friday for both teams.

The scores since 2019, all at CMH Field and all in Banks' favor: 49-7, 49-18, 42-17 and 28-0.

But, it wasn't all bad for Astoria in Friday's contest. First, it was a nonleague game, as the Braves were playing their first game as a 3A school. And for what it's worth, the score was a little deceptive.

The Fishermen kept the Banks offense out of the end zone for the first 28 minutes and 55 seconds of the game; the Astoria defense spent half the night making tackles in the Braves' backfield; and the Fishermen trailed just 7-0 at halftime.

But two big plays by the Braves — both in the opening minute of each half — resulted in 14 points for Banks.

A dropped pitchout by Astoria on the second play from scrimmage was picked up and returned 28 yards by Banks' Andrew Brown for a quick 7-0 lead.

And on the opening kick of the second half, Banks junior Kade Long went untouched 82 yards for a TD. The Braves' offense finally scored a few minutes later, when Long caught a 10-yard TD pass from Ashton Crossen. Long later left with an injury. Meanwhile, the Astoria offense was stopped on two fourth-and-goal plays at the 2-yard line, on consecutive drives in the second half.

Defensively, Banks held Astoria's Luke Cummings to 57 yards rushing on 29 carries. The game featured 16 penalties for 128 yards, and three blocked punts.

Hornets sting the Gulls on last play, 22-21

SEASIDE — The most thrilling game of the weekend in Oregon 4A football took place Friday night at Broadway Field.

In a matchup between Class 4A powers, the only lead of the night for the Henley Hornets came after time had officially expired.

Luke Bennett caught a 3-yard touchdown pass from Shaw Stork on the last play of regulation, and Stork ran in the two-point conversion with :00 on the clock, giving Henley an improbable 22-21 win.

It was the fourth meeting between the two schools since 2017, all four games at Seaside.

Seaside's Jake White celebrated his third touchdown of the game Friday night at Broadway Field.

featured 1,080 yards in total offense and 47 first downs in a 43-39 Henley win.

Friday's game was on the milder side, but still exciting.

Late in the first half, Seaside was in complete control, with a 21-6 lead.

Sophomore running back Jake White had 98 yards rushing in the first quarter alone, and scored all three touchdowns for the Gulls, who held a 21-14 halftime lead.

After a scoreless third quarter, the game came down to Henley's final drive in the fourth, which started at its own 20-yard line with 2:19 left.

The Hornets moved the ball to the Seaside 3-yard line, and with two seconds left, Stork connected with Bennett on a quick slant route, bringing Henley to within 21-20.

The Hornets played for the two-point conversion and the win, and got it when Stork sprinted left and reached the end zone for the game-winning points.

White finished with 180 yards rushing on 27 carries, while Brady Jackson and Tyler McCleary combined for 90 yards on 20 attempts.

Seaside plays Friday at La Salle, one of just two road games for the Gulls this season.

Warrenton rallies past Amity, 20-13

Santiam defeats Knappa Loggers

The Astorian

Warrenton rallied from a 13-6 deficit in the third quarter for a 20-13 win Friday night at Amity in the Battle of the Warriors, a nonleague football season opener for both teams.

A 50-yard interception return for a touchdown had given Amity a seven-point lead early in the third quarter, but Warrenton responded with a 72-yard pass play for a score and a seven-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

Santiam 30, Knappa 0
Friday night's biggest upset special took place in Knappa, where Santiam stunned Knappa 30-0 in a season opener for both teams.

The Loggers were recently ranked fourth in a preseason coaches poll, with one first-place vote.

Santiam recovered Knappa's opening inside kick and drove 53 yards for a touchdown, a 5-yard run by senior Trenton Stafford, who added the two-point run for an 8-0 lead.

The score was still 8-0 at halftime, but Stafford scored on a 53-yard run with 8:08 left in the third quarter.

After an injury to Stafford, sophomore Lukus Lebahn came on and ran 66 yards for a fourth quarter score.

Gavin Barendse had several long runs for Knappa, but the Loggers were held scoreless.
