Chicagos Takes Off Hat To River Apple Racles

Display at Land and Irrigation Expo Viewed by Thousands Who Stand in Awe and Admiration In Front of Display

Word from the big exposition in big city, Chicago, is that the River Apple exhibit is striking a big success. Thousands who daily throng the building grounds of the street fair were yesterday seen in the gardens, of which the exhibit of the River Apple holds a large space. In one corner, a group of children was looking at the plants and asking questions about the River Apple.

Standing in front of the River Apple exhibit is Mr. John Doe, a well-known botanist, who is delighted with the exhibit. He said, "This is the most beautiful thing I have ever seen in the world. That is the most beautiful thing in the world." He added, "That is the most beautiful thing in the world. We have never seen such a beautiful thing before."

Mr. Doe also expressed his appreciation for the work of the botanists who have nurtured the River Apple. He concluded, "I think this is the most beautiful thing in the world. It is a thing of beauty, a thing of wonder."

Farm Land Sales Again Are Humming

If Outiders Get Cold Feet Local Men Beat Them To It—Trucks All Over Valley Are Loaded with Gold

As the price of gold continues to rise, the demand for farmland in the area is increasing. Local farmers are selling their land to out-of-towners, and the demand is so high that the price of land has doubled in the past six months.

According to local real estate agents, the demand for land is particularly strong in the rural areas, where the price of land has risen by 50% in the past year. The demand is expected to continue, as the price of gold is expected to rise further in the coming months.
