PINE GROVE GRANGE

Pine Grove Grange held a very interesting meeting at their Hall Saturday evening, December 18th. It being the night for election of officers the fine program was crowded out, the worthy lecturer has promised us a better one for our first day of the New Year. We are all going to start the new year right and attend this enthusiastic all day meeting, beginning 10 a. m.

After the installation of officers, initiation of new members and other matters of business, all will repair to the banquet hall, where a sumptuous New Year dinner will be served. Those desiring information about the dinner will please confer with Mr. A. I. Mason, chairman of committee.

The greatest part of the afternoon will be given over to worthy lecture.

Four new members were admitted to the grange, viz.: Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, Thos. Cameron and Mrs. L. Silliman. State lecturer, J. J. Johnson, assisted in the ceremony.

Three new candidates were proposed, viz.: Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Otto Eirch.

We believe the patrons have chosen an excellent corps of officers for the coming year. They are as follows:

- Worthy Master—J. H. Mohr.
- Worthy Oracle—M. Dragseth.
- Worthy Lecturer—Mrs. Clara Jarvis.
- Worthy Steward—Wm. Stone.
- Worthy Asst. Steward—Peter J. Mohr.
- Worthy Chaplin—Mrs. A. I. Mason.
- Worthy Secretary—Luella C. Hunt.
- Worthy Treasurer—Carl Johnson.
- Worthy Gatekeeper—A. I. Mason.
- Ceres—Mrs. James Taylor.
- Pomona—Mrs. Mark Cameron.
- Flora—Mrs. Wm. Stone.
- Worthy Lady Assistant Steward—Mrs. H. M. Vannier.

Bro. A. I. Mason read a letter answering an attack on the patrons of husbandry by a local newspaper, and a committee of three, together with worthy master and worthy secretary, was appointed to perfect the same.

Bro. J. J. Johnson, state lecturer gave a spirited talk against the calling of a constitutional convention and pointed out several good and indisputable reasons why every granger should work against it. Bro. Johnson instills enthusiasm where ever he goes, and we, of Pine Grove Grange feel especially honored to have had him with us again.

A committee was appointed to look after the entertainment of visiting members of our neighboring granges. Brothers and sisters be assured of a welcome at Pine Grove.

The day meetings will be held on the first Saturday of each month, while the evening meetings will be held as formerly.

We expect to organize a team for initiation purposes early in the year that promises to be one of the best features of grange work.—W. L.
