STAMPEDE FROM ARKANSAW ON ACCOUNT OF APPLES

Guy Smith who recently sent a box of apples to an Arkansaw man has received the following letter.
Glencoe, Ark., Dec. 13, 1909.
Mr. Guy F. Smith,
Hood River, Oregon.
My dear Colonel:—
I wish to acknowledge receipt of a box of the finest apples that I ever saw, and that is saying a good deal for I am a professional nurseryman, having made that my business for thirty years. I am certainly authority on good apples. The box was nicely packed and came in the finest condition. I was favorably impressed with your Arkansas Black, as that is an apple that I have taken a great deal of stock in and you grow a much finer apple than we do in Arkansas. The Spitzenberg was also fine, a favorite apple of mine and whenever I pick one out of the box to eat it is a Spitzenberg. The Yellow Pippin showed up in great shape and seemed to be the favorite with the ladies of Glencoe. The Orley is a new one to me. I must confess that you have got me; I never have propagated it and I am no authority on its virtues. I was in Hood River last summer and regret very much that I did not see you. I made an extensive visit through your valley and was much pleased with the general appearance of your orchard and I believe there is a great future in store for you and other gentlemen pioneers that have taken hold of the fruit business.
I attended the Land Exhibition here and saw the Hood River display. It certainly was very fine and was very attractive. The Hood River display received more favorable comment than any other and in conversation, as the emigration to that country will be immense in the future, all going out to purchase Hood River orchards.
I am expecting A. B. Combs here for Christmas. He will remain here for about a week or ten days, then return to Portland. When you see him I wish you would inform him that I have acknowledge next summer to spend a week at Lost Lake with a party of New Orleans people who are going there and I hope I can have the pleasure of meeting you while on my trip.
Again thanking you for the apples and the courtesies extended, I am
Very truly yours,
GEO. W. COMBS.
Ill Health is More Expensive Than Any Cure
This country is now filled with people who migrate across the continent in all directions seeking that which gold cannot buy. Nine-tenths of them are suffering from throat and lung trouble or chronic catarrh resulting from neglected colds, and spending fortunes vainly trying to regain lost health. Could every sufferer but undo the past and cure that first neglected cold, all this sorrow, pain, anxiety and expense could have been avoided. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures and can be depended upon. Use it and the more serious diseases may be avoided. For sale by all good dealers.
