S. L. Buddinghouse, a student of O. A. C., is spending his vacation with A. I. Mason and family.
The Ladies' Aid will hold a special session at the home of Mrs. James Churchward Wednesday afternoon of this week.
Earl Thomas, a former resident of Pine Grove, arrived from Alberta, Canada, the first of the week for a visit with friends.
The grangers will hold an all day session at their hall Saturday next. A chicken pie dinner, with the good things that go with it will be served.
The fine Christmas tree at the church Friday evening with the interesting program furnished, reflected much credit on those who had charge of the exercises.
The public can expect something out of the ordinary in the way of entertainment at the hall the middle of January. Further notice will be given in a few days.
The Pine Grove grange has written to the commercial club of Hood River requesting them to meet the grangers at some future date to discuss the good roads proposition.
There will be a working force at the church next Saturday for the purpose of sawing wood for the church. It is expected the ladies will see to it that a good dinner is prepared for the laborers.

Mrs. D. H. Thorn returned from Detroit, Mich., last week, where she went on business. Miss Dennison came with Mrs. Thorn and will take up her residence with her grandmother, Mrs. Shonquist.

Married

Wheeler-Lucas
W. Fred Wheeler and Miss Ruth Lucas, well known young people of Hood River were married at noon Christmas day at the home of Mr. A. L. Davies where the bride has been living. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace A. C. Buck in the presence of a few friends and relatives. After the ceremony a bountiful wedding dinner was served.

Henkle-Sproat

A very pretty home wedding at which were present a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sproat at high noon December 23rd when their daughter Irene B. Sproat and

J. C. Henkle were joined in the bonds of matrimony.

The house was appropriately decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Spaulding. After congratulations a dainty dinner was served and the bride and groom left for their home in Portland.

Miss Sproat is one of valley's best known and most highly esteemed young ladies and recently graduated from the conservatory of music at the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis where she took a four years' course. Mr. Henkle is an expert electrical engineer. For two years he was employed in the engineering department of the General Electrical Company at Schenectady, New York, and now holds a position with the Portland Electric Railroad and Water Company.

How to be Happy

Editors and their wives are bound to disagree daily as she sets things to rights and he writes things to set. She reads what others write and he writes what others read. She keeps the devil out of the house as much as possible and he can't do without him at the office. She knows more than he knows. If any young lady wants to disagree the whole time we advise her to marry an editor.—Ex.

Made Two Good Sales.

G. Y. Edwards & Co. closed the following sales recently: Five acres, one and one half miles west of town, from H. N. Cole, of Portland to A. J. Brunquist. This place is improved with 4 year-old orchard, 10 acres in the same neighborhood from A. B. Cash to G. E. Merrill. Both places will be occupied by the new owners at once. The above firm sold Mr. Merrill's place in Belmont during the summer.
