A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU ALL

THE X-mas Season is just past and we want to thank you all for liberal patronage and we especially wish to mention the loyal little girls and their many friends who helped them to make our

DOLL CONTEST A GRAND SUCCESS

The result of which we are sorry they could not all win first prize.

First Prize. Anna Dart, with checks amounting to $4523.25. Second Prize, Marie Bartmess, with checks amounting to $1004.45. Suzanne Kay came next, $942.97. Then Lillian Brok with $386.45 and Lillian Gerdes with $323.81. They all earned a doll and my gratitude.

Cloaks and Furs Clearance Prices

FRANK A. CRAM

Overcoats Must Go

Great Reductions

Live Local Topics

Five thousand for Hood River first in West. Next Outlook came home for the holidays, together with her mother who was attending Oregon State College. Miss Willie Mead, who has just been married, is now living at the home of her parents. The Outlook is again at the door to announce the marriage of Miss Sue A. Stone and W. W. Ford, former residents of Hood River. Miss Stone has been living in Los Angeles for several years and Mr. Ford has been a well known and respected citizen of this community for many years. The wedding took place at San Diego, where Mr. and Mrs. Ford have been living for several years. The bride was a very popular citizen of this community and her friends will be greatly missed.

Mrs. J. E. Sargent, the mother of the late Mr. F. J. Sargent, has returned to her home after an extended stay in the East. She has been spending the winter in Arizona and has returned to take care of the business affairs of her family. Mrs. Sargent was a very popular citizen of this community and her friends will be greatly missed.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year

For 1910

Very sincerely yours,

Devinl&Firebaugh

LEADING DEALERS

R. A. T. & Co. Building

PORTLAND, OREGON

RODGEO GREEN

Use Wood Fibre House Plan

Stranahan & Clark

GET YOUR MILK

The Payson Dairy Supply Co.

MOUNTAIN GLEN FARM

Pure, Wholesome, Healthful, From Cows and Stables

2635 18th Street

H. N. PAYSON, City Solicitor

THOS. CALKINS, Deputy

238-4

W. J. BAKER

Real Estate

Insurance

APPLE AND STRAWBERRY

LAND A SPECIALTY

Correspondence Invited