SOMETHING DOING

January Clearance Sale

Previous Prices Now Deeply Reduced to Clear All Departments of Winter Goods.

WHILE the weather-wise predict that Winter will linger in the lap of Spring, we plan to positively prevent our Winter stocks overlapping the arrival of Spring goods. Their complete clearance in the name of the mighty spring movement is a given. The deeply reduced prices present powerful reasons for your ready response to economy's most eminent event.

Clearance as we plan permits no consideration of costs...goods get going-out prices that you will greet gladly. Every department presents urgently underpriced offerings on reasonable and satisfactory stocks.

The sale is held in accord with our policy of carrying no goods over—what we buy to sell this season must be sold this season. Thus every article of Winter merchandise now in this store is marked down to a point where its speedy sale is assured.

Immediate investigation is invited.

The Unmatched January Clearance Sale Begins Tuesday, January 4th

JANUARY

FRANK A. GRAM

Live Local Topics

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ellis were visitors in Portland New Years. Attorney A. A. Jaggy returned from a professional visit at the Baltoa Friday.

Mrs. T. R. Ford and daughter Sally were Portland passengers Monday.

Peter Jutram was among the Road River people who spent the first day of the new year in Portland. County Attorney J. J. Davis came from the Kokes Monday to be a witness at the session of the county court.

Mrs. Moody, who spent Christmas with her son in the Upper Valley, returned to Portland, where she is making her home this winter. Saturday morning.

The annual meeting of Ellwood Congregational church will be held Friday, January 7, 1909, at the noon service at 12:00 noon. Refreshments will be served and the business hour will follow. Every member is urged to be present.

John Causey was a Portland tie
the New Year's night and Sunday. Mrs. Alon Hoys went to Portland Friday to spend New Year's in that city.

Mrs. Paul Breeding returned to her home at the Willamette University Monday afternoon.

Al Miler has gone to Portland to take a business course at the Christian Brothers college.

Mr. and Mrs. Snider, the former a brother of Mrs. C. A. Bell, were guests at the Mote House hotel over New Years.

Word received from Danville, who is going to school at the Willamette business college, was riding back from the house of Peter Miller during his

holiday vacation.

G. E. Gray, after several days spent with the family who are occupying the Hurley house for the winter, re-\nturned to his residence Monday for the employment house he is connected with.

C. S. Speak, secretary of the Ap-

dam council bureau, left Friday for an extended stay through California, the midwest west and eastern states. He will be present at the meeting of the eastern fruit growers which will be held this week at Beaver.

J. E. Ricehold left Monday for a business trip to Portland.

Miss Florence Lighty, a student of

Willamette, stopped in Beaver for a short visit with Miss Fred Breid

to the city.

The Ladies of the Methodist church will meet Friday afternoon of this week with Mrs. W. B. Mason at 2:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Clark Eaton will speak

Wednesday evening at the Christmas church on short bread work. This afternoon at 3:00 to a women only.

Harold Buel left last week for

Portland. On January 5th he will go to San Francisco where he will take the examination for admittance to West Point.

All the setting officers and officers of the Caufield Corso sec were presented to be presented by 1230 at K. P. Hall Saturday, Jan 6th, by request of the hunting officer.

Sheriff Fitzhugh found a wallet winning in the snow along State street

Monday and brought it to the News office. Shortly afterward Oscar Fong, to whom it belonged, came to claim it. It pays to advertise in this paper.

Mrs. Elizabeth Breeding, who has been spending the past three months at her old home in Canada and is returning to Beaver Monday for the

employment house he is connected with.

She has been present at the meeting of the eastern fruit growers which will be held this week at Beaver.

A. B. Landor left Portland Monday to spend a few days in the

Everett office. M. L. Childs, editor of the Oregonian, was in Portland for a short visit with Miss Fred Breid

to the city.

SOMETHING DOING

January Clearance Sale

Previous Prices Now Deeply Reduced to Clear All Departments of Winter Goods.

WHILE the weather-wise predict that Winter will linger in the lap of Spring, we plan to positively prevent our Winter stocks overlapping the arrival of Spring goods. Their complete clearance in the name of the mighty spring movement is a given. The deeply reduced prices present powerful reasons for your ready response to economy's most eminent event.

Clearance as we plan permits no consideration of costs...goods get going-out prices that you will greet gladly. Every department presents urgently underpriced offerings on reasonable and satisfactory stocks.

The sale is held in accord with our policy of carrying no goods over—what we buy to sell this season must be sold this season. Thus every article of Winter merchandise now in this store is marked down to a point where its speedy sale is assured.

Immediate investigation is invited.

The Unmatched January Clearance Sale Begins Tuesday, January 4th

JANUARY

FRANK A. GRAM

Live Local Topics

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ellis were visitors in Portland New Years. Attorney A. A. Jaggy returned from a professional visit at the Baltoa Friday.

Mrs. T. R. Ford and daughter Sally were Portland passengers Monday.

Peter Jutram was among the Road River people who spent the first day of the new year in Portland. County Attorney J. J. Davis came from the Kokes Monday to be a witness at the session of the county court.

Mrs. Moody, who spent Christmas with her son in the Upper Valley, returned to Portland, where she is making her home this winter. Saturday morning.

The annual meeting of Ellwood Congregational church will be held Friday, January 7, 1909, at the noon service at 12:00 noon. Refreshments will be served and the business hour will follow. Every member is urged to be present.

John Causey was a Portland tie
the New Year's night and Sunday. Mrs. Alon Hoys went to Portland Friday to spend New Year's in that city.

Mrs. Paul Breeding returned to her
home at the Willamette University Monday afternoon.

Al Miler has gone to Portland to take a business course at the Christian Brothers college.

Mr. and Mrs. Snider, the former a brother of Mrs. C. A. Bell, were guests at the Mote House hotel over New Years.

Word received from Danville, who
is going to school at the Willamette business college, was riding back from the house of Peter Miller during his

holiday vacation.

G. E. Gray, after several days spent with the family who are occupying the Hurley house for the winter, returned to his residence Monday for the employment house he is connected with.

C. S. Speak, secretary of the Ap-
dam council bureau, left Friday for an extended stay through California, the midwest west and eastern states. He will be present at the meeting of the eastern fruit growers which will be held this week at Beaver.

J. E. Ricehold left Monday for a business trip to Portland.

Miss Florence Lighty, a student of

Willamette, stopped in Beaver for a short visit with Miss Fred Breid

to the city.

The Ladies of the Methodist church will meet Friday afternoon of this week with Mrs. W. B. Mason at 2:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Clark Eaton will speak

Wednesday evening at the Christmas church on short bread work. This afternoon at 3:00 to a women only.

Harold Buel left last week for

Portland. On January 5th he will go to San Francisco where he will take the examination for admittance to West Point.

All the setting officers and officers of the Caufield Corso sec were presented to be presented by 1230 at K. P. Hall Saturday, Jan 6th, by request of the hunting officer.

Sheriff Fitzhugh found a wallet winning in the snow along State street

Monday and brought it to the News office. Shortly afterward Oscar Fong, to whom it belonged, came to claim it. It pays to advertise in this paper.

Mrs. Elizabeth Breeding, who has been spending the past three months at her old home in Canada and is

returning to Beaver Monday for the

employment house he is connected with.

She has been present at the meeting of the eastern fruit growers which will be held this week at Beaver.

A. B. Landor left Portland Monday to spend a few days in the

Everett office. M. L. Childs, editor of the Oregonian, was in Portland for a short visit with Miss Fred Breid

to the city.