MOSIER

C. A. McCarger and family came up from Portland the first of the week, after several weeks' visit with friends.

Price Hunter came up from Alsea Monday and spent several days with relatives. He brought a fine string of fish with him.

Mrs. Wm. Akers went to Hood River Thursday to visit her brothers, Chas. and Sam Stark, returning Saturday.

Miss Agnes Phillips came from Portland Friday and will spend some time with her father while Miss Irma will visit in Portland.

Rev. C. Clark of Corvallis held a week's service in the Christian church. Rev. Clark is an able speaker and great interest was shown.

The Y. P. B. of the W. C. T. U. at their meeting Wednesday evening debated on, "Resolved that whiskey has caused more sorrow than war." On the affirmative were Park Sturges, T. C. Godbersen, Olive Fisher and Leo Higley; negative, George Carroll, Jack Lellott, Jim Sturgiss and Frank Saltzman. The judges were Rev. Clark, Rev. Chaffee and Dr. Robinson, and after carefully considering the points made decided in favor of the negative.

Death again visited our community and claimed as its victim John Pegg, a young man about 32 years of age, who died at the home of his father on Mosier creek. The funeral was held Wednesday from the Baptist church, Rev. Stark conducting the services.

At a meeting of the Valley Telephone Company held Tuesday in Lamb's hall the following directors were elected: David Robinson, C. T. Bennett, Geo. Chamberlain, E. L. Root and J. N. Mosier.

The Mosier boys have organized a band with S. D. Fisher leader. Some of the boys had instruments and others sent and got instruments. From the "tooting" all over town they are hard at work. They have rented Lamb's hall to practice in two evenings a week, so when we celebrate the Fourth this year Mosier will furnish its own music.

PINE GROVE

Mrs. D. H. Thorn was a visitor in Portland last week.

Mr. Powell and family from North Dakota arrived last week and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mark.

Rev. J. W. Rigby supplied the pulpit Sunday morning, in the absence of Rev. Spaulding, who preached at Odell.

The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Ben Lage Wednesday afternoon of this week.

King Benton is making all necessary arrangements on his ranch for the coming of his family in a few days.

Thursday morning the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shoemaker was stricken with croup and died suddenly. The community extends great sympathy for them in their severe loss.

The entertainment entitled "The Guv'nor" which was given at grange hall Friday evening was well received by a large audience.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Wm. Kerr Friday afternoon and were delightfully entertained. Several visitors were present and a dainty lunch was served.

Arrangements are being made by the W. C. T. U. to observe Frances E. Willard memorial day, Sunday morning February 20. The pastor has kindly given his service hour for this purpose.

DEE
At the recent school meeting a tax of 3 mills was voted for this district. Mr. A. B. Combs was a passenger up from Hood River Tuesday of last week. Mr. Combs returned recently from Chicago where he found the weather much colder than it has been up here.

Mrs. Jones, a resident of Mt. Hood, who is spending the winter in Hood River was visiting at the Puddy home last week, returning to Hood River Wednesday.

Miss Matilda Ziegenhagen, of The Dalles, came up Monday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Spencer, at Parkdale.

Mrs. A. B. Billings has not been well lately, but is able to be out again.

Chicken pox has been prevalent in the Upper Valley for the last two or three weeks.

Pine Grove Grange

Pine Grove Grange held its regular meeting Saturday night, January 15, with a good attendance. This was our social night and everybody enjoyed themselves to the limit.

Three new candidates were initiated in the first and second degrees and our court were dressed in their new costumes. They presented a stunning appearance. New applications are coming in and we hope to double our membership.

Five young ladies are on the committee to look after our refreshment for our next day meeting, February 5. They have had their heads together already, so we will have our appetites all prepared for a grand feast. Let every one come out and enjoy themselves.

The "Guv'nor" given by the Young Men's Baraca class was attended by over 200 people, and to say it was a success would be putting it mild. It was simply great.

Connected With Portland Firm.
The widespread interest that is now taken in Hood River orchard lands is shown by the fact that the Real Estate Department of Hartman & Thompson, Bankers, Chamber of Commerce Building, Portland, Oregon, are now handling Hood River valley lands, and have appointed J. F. Batchelder their Hood River correspondent, who will have charge of real business in Hood River.

The Real Estate Department of Hartman & Thompson is well known in Portland, through the handling of Rose City Park and other large tracts, and their thoroughly equipped Portland office and Eastern representatives will be the means of sending many desirable buyers to Hood River.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the sympathy and kindness of friends and neighbors during my late bereavement in the death of my husband O. L. Stranahan.

Sincerely,
MRS. O. L. STRANAHAN.

We are in receipt of another communication from the "Board of Strategy" of Pine Grove grange which we are forced to leave out this week owing to the lateness of its arrival. Unless it explodes in the meantime it will appear next week.

GET ACQUAINTED WITH YOUR NEIGHBOR PARTY

A neighborhood social was held at Highland Home, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cuning last Friday night for the purpose of meeting the neighbors and getting better acquainted. A splendid entertainment was given that was a surprise to all on account of its excellence.

Mr. Cuning stated the object of the meeting was to form a "Get Acquainted with your Neighbor Trust," as we had not met them, for during the summer and fall we had been work-bound, and during November rain-bound, and since then snow-bound, until we were in danger of being hide-bound, and that formality would cut no ice, but each one must thaw out and do something to relieve the strain. That started Mrs. Wilbur, who led at the piano with "Marching Through Georgia" and "Rally Round the Flag," in which all joined. Mrs. Edgington read a humorous account of the training of the Ruggles' nine kids to attend a high life party. We all wanted more of it but Mrs. Edgington was tired after such strenuous coaching. Mr. Newman and Mr. Cronkey, with violin and cornet and Miss Harbison as accompanist, gave a rare treat in instrumental music that was roundly enjoyed and another selection rendered equally pleasing. Little Miss Margie Campbell recited a revised version of the George Washington cherry tree incident that was so well done that we all believed the new story. Mr. Harbison then gave a thrilling account of the Halley Comet through inspiration of the Lime Kiln Club that was side shaking. Mr. Wilbur, with Mrs. Wilbur at the piano, sang "Bury me in the Deep Sea," but all refused as they wanted him to sing more and he responded by singing a Gipsy song. Dr. and Mrs. Edgington, Grace and Beth, as usual captured our hearts by singing "Hear Dem Bells" and "Kitty Clyde." Agnes and Edwin Markham and Francis Littlefield tried to sing an Indian song but Edwin took the war path and queered the show. Refreshments were then served and as the hour was late, though much of the program was omitted the party adjourned to meet again and keep the ball rolling.

The next meeting of the trust is Friday night at Mr. B. F. Shoemaker's.

After a short illness the three-year old son of L. Stuck died Monday.

TONS OF ALASKA COPPER.

Report of Geologist Brooks Shows Enormous Yield This Year.

"The season of mining in Alaska has been a prosperous one," says Alfred H. Brooks, geologist in charge of the Alaska work of the United States geological survey, who has just returned to Washington from his annual "swing around the circle" in the far northwest. "While dry weather and other unfavorable conditions have curtailed the placer gold production at Nome, most of the other camps have either maintained or increased their output. "Figures of gold output are not yet available, but it seems probable that the production for 1909 will be between nineteen and twenty million dollars. The low price of copper has not encouraged mining of that metal, but about half a dozen properties shipped ore during 1909. It appears probable that the Alaska copper output for the year will exceed 4,000,000 pounds."

One Light In Two Thousand Miles.

For the first time the great southern coast of Alaska, more than 2,000 miles long, has this winter a lighthouse. Though one of the most dangerous and stormy coasts in the world and difficult of navigation, even in summer, this area has been wholly neglected until now. The first light is on Cape Hinchinbrook, at one of the entrances to Prince William sound. There are many other places where lights and fog signals are almost as urgently needed, notably Cape St. Elias, where steamers are often held up for days because of fog and a long, hidden reef. Other lights are, however, to be added next year.
