Miss Blanche Harrison was a guest at the home of Judge Lake of The Dalles over Sunday.

Attorney E. H. Hartwig has sold the 80 acres recently purchased by him at Lyle, Washington, to D. D. Bathrick, a Chicago railroad expert.

A ride over the valley shows many orchardists busy with the pruning knife. Indications are said to be good for a bumper crop according to the dormant buds.

The J. U. G. girls gave Miss Mae Davidson a pleasant surprise party last Thursday evening. The time was spent in playing games and in partaking of the appetizing refreshments served.

Word was received here Monday that Harold E. Dabney, who recently took the examination at San Francisco to enter the West Point Military Academy had passed. Mr. Dabney expects to leave for West Point this week to take up his studies.

J. L. Henderson, county surveyor, has appointed deputy surveyors for the upper and lower valleys. W. N. Winter, who recently bought the A. T. Allen ranch will act in the upper valley and Harry Hackett in the lower. All requests for surveys should be sent to J. L. Henderson who will give them prompt attention.

Letters addressed to G. F. H. and A. await answers at the News office. For Rent—An elegant front office or sleeping room in the Davidson building. Steam heat. Apply at room 8 or at Light & Water office.

The evangelistic services which Rev. Adams is holding at the Christian church are being well attended and will be continued until further notice.

Rev. J. H. Hargreaves delivered a finished lecture at the Baptist Church last Friday evening on the foundation of the monothelistic faith, as exemplified by Abraham, Moses and Elijah. The church was well filled and the lecture enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to hear it.

The Married People's Society, an organization perfected under the auspices of Asbury Methodist church, will give a valentine party at Odd Fellows hall Monday evening, February 14th. The young people will give a party at the parsonage the same evening.

At the ministers' meeting which was held Monday Secretary Skinner addressed the association on the matter of street and yard improvement. A resolution was passed by the association endorsing Mr. Skinner's attitude and pledging the help of the ministers to the work of cleaning up and beautifying the city.

Upper Valley. A special buy, 25 acres, 14 cleared, 6 in bearing orchard, near Parkdale, Good buildings. Small fruits, etc. W. H. MARSHALL.

$18,000 SALE ON EAST SIDE

G. Y. Edwards & Co. Tuesday closed the sale of the Wm. Kerr place 2 1/2 miles from town on the east side. The above consisted of 27 and 1/2 fraction acres, mostly in trees, about one-half of which are in full bearing. L. E. Ireland, of Minneapolis, the purchaser, will close his affairs in the east and return here about Aug. 1st. Mr. Ireland visited the valley last summer and again last month, when he decided to buy the above orchard. As soon after Aug. 1st as possible he will remodel the present house or rebuild entirely.

Don't Rubber

"WHAT'ER ARE YOU DOING?" off, who lay on his stomach contentedly munching an apple, apparently paid no attention to his mother's entrance. "Jack! Henry! Willie!" she exclaimed reproachfully. "Whatever are you doing? And those apples! Didn't I tell you not to touch them?" "Yes, mamma," replied Jack, the eldest, "but we're not really eating them. We're acting the garden of Eden. Willie and I are Adam and Eve, and Henry, over there, is the serpent trying to lead us to our downfall by showing us how good the apples are."

"But," began the mother as sternly as she was able, "you two must have been eating apples. Henry hasn't done it all. I see as many as ten cores around you."

"Oh, yeth," returned Willie, the youngest, "we've all been taking turn being the serpent."—Green's Fruit Grower.

Mistaken Identity. A man going home at a late hour in the night saw that the occupants of a house standing flush with the street had left a window up, and he decided to warn them and prevent a burglary. Putting his head into the window he called out: "Hello, good pop!" That was all he said. A whole pailful of water struck him in the face, and as he staggered back a woman shrieked out: "Didn't I tell you what you'd get if you wasn't home by 9 o'clock!"

Counterfeiters. Tommy had been reading a great deal in the newspapers about senators and congressmen and lawmaking, and his mind was filled with legislative matters. On many occasions his father had explained as best he could the articles of which the newspapers treated and took pains to voice his opinion, which was not always favorable.

With his mind so actively fertilized and growing Tommy could not help asking his father one day: "Say, pop, why is a senator like a counterfeiter?" "That's too strong for me," replied his father. "What's the answer?" "Because," answered Tommy triumphantly, "he makes and tries to pass some pretty bad bills."

A PUZZLER.

The Enigma the Secretary Was Unable to Decipher. From Horace Greeley's time great men have been noted for their poor chirography, and in this connection Joaquin Miller, the "poet of the Sierras," is no exception. But the best story regarding the poet's hand writing that I have heard came recently from the secretary of a well known local club. It seems that the club desired to have the poet address the organization at an annual affair at which an elaborate program had been prepared. The secretary addressed a letter to Joaquin telling him of the purpose of the links and requesting his co-operation. He was scheduled for a recitation.

In due time there came an answer from the poet. It was in his own hand and covered four pages. In vain the secretary pored over the manuscript. He turned it over to the president, the board of directors and the members in turn, but all failed to decipher the scrawl. The question before the club was, Has Miller accepted or has he declined?

The secretary finally took the matter into his own hands and addressed the following note to Miller: My Dear Mr. Miller—Your letter received, but I have been unable to determine whether you have accepted or declined our invitation. If you will be present on the date mentioned will you kindly make a cross on the bottom of this letter? If it will be impossible for you to appear will you kindly draw a circle?

In due time the letter came back marked as requested, but the secretary could not decide whether it was a cross or a circle.—San Francisco Call.

Don't Seek Trouble. Dispel that prophetic gloom which dives into futurity to extract sorrow from days and years to come and which considers its own unhappy visions as the decrees of Providence. We know nothing of tomorrow; our business is to be good and happy today.—Sydney Smith.

A Popular Role. Mrs. Rogers had the barrel of russet apples placed in the attic because they were not quite ripe enough to eat, and she warned her three boys, whose ages range from five to eleven years, not to touch them. Then one rainy day when she sought the attic to get something from a trunk she came full upon her sons surrounded by apple cores. At her approach two of the boys drew closer together, but the third, a little distance
