Hood River :: :: Oregon

The ceremony which was performed by Rev. H. C. Schaffer who formerly lived at Hood River and who is an old friend of the family included the ring service. The wedding march was played by Miss Warren a friend of the bride's who also rendered Annie Laurie softly during the ceremony. After congratulations a wedding dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lentz came to Hood River Thursday and will make their home in the Odell District where the groom has a ranch.

Died

Nellie Shay

The death of Miss Nellie Shay, a young lady with many friends and well known at Hood River, occurred Thursday, February 10th, in a Dallas City hospital. Miss Shay, who was completing her second year as a trained nurse, was 21 years old. As a young girl she attended school here, and for a time was employed in the telephone office. Later she took up the profession of nursing, and just previous to her death had been employed attending a number of typhoid fever cases at The Dallas hospital. Some time ago she contracted the disease, and suffered such a severe attack that she failed to survive.

The body was brought here, and funeral services held Saturday afternoon at Bartness Chapel, conducted by Rev. Adams. The burial service was in charge of the Daughters of Rebekah, of which the young lady was a highly esteemed member, and the pall bearers were the past noble grand officers of the local lodge of Odd Fellows. Interment was in Idlewild Cemetery.

Notice

In pursuance of a petition signed by 74 stockholders of the Farmers' Irrigating Company, representing 690 shares of stock, a special stockholders meeting will be held on Saturday, March 5, 1910 at 10 a. m. at K. of P. hall. By order of directors, M. H. NICKELSEN, Sec.

We, the undersigned stockholders of the Farmers Irrigating Company, do hereby call a special meeting of the stockholders of said Farmers Irrigating Company, for the purpose of instructing the board of directors to have proper investigation made and statements furnished by a competent engineer, as to the cost of constructing, maintaining and operating an underground pipe system, covering the laterals of the Farmers Irrigating Company; also an estimate of the cost of reconstructing, operating and maintaining the present flume and ditch system, and repairing and maintaining the ditch system along the county roads to make said roads safe for the public to travel.

The above report to be submitted to a stockholders meeting to be called as soon as possible after said report has been submitted to the board of directors, that the stockholders may know the most economical and efficient system, taking into consideration the removal of many unsightly and unsafe ditches from our valley.

And any other business that may come legally before said meeting.

ODELL

William Lentz and Miss Nellie Rogers were married at Portland last week and will make Dukes Valley their home.

Miss Margaret Kinser who has been attending school at Odell went to Portland last Tuesday where she will attend school.

Dan Smith sold his 40-acre farm for $14,000.

Professor Robert Krohn spent Sunday with his brother Ben.

The gentlemen of the neighborhood club will entertain the ladies of the club Friday evening with cards and dancing at the Pine Grove grange hall.

Mr. Hibbard will leave in about a month for Dallas, Ore., where he is going to reside.

Frank P. Friday is in eastern Oregon, where he expects to buy horses.

Mrs. Ballinger, who is visiting Mrs. DeWitt is recovering from her illness.

Mrs. Mabel Kemp, who has been visiting friends in The Dalles has returned to her home in Odell.

BARRETT

Many of the farmers in this neighborhood have made a wonderful improvement in the appearance of their farms by removing the old wire fences. Let the good work go on 'til the entire valley is rid of these unsightly things.

Mr. Firebaugh, the rustling realty agent, has a large force of men and teams clearing his property near the valley church.

A large and enthusiastic crowd gathered at the school house Friday evening, the occasion being a basket social, given under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Valley church. The literary program was especially good, most every number arousing a hearty encore. The cracker contest, engaged in by Messrs. Sherrie, Slutz, and Bishop, proved to be the climax of the entertainment. The prize, consisting of a dainty lunch, was awarded to Mr. Slutz, he devouring the five crackers in the shortest time. The real fun began in earnest when Mr. Marsh Isenburg took command, and offered the many beautifully trimmed baskets to the highest bidders. The thirty-five baskets netted the society $83.65.

Miss Grace Sherrie led an interesting endeavor meeting Sunday evening. The society, by a standing vote, extended their thanks to Mr. Isenburg for his assistance at the social Friday evening. The society donated $10 to the fund for procuring new song books.

On Saturday Park Grange held their first all-day meeting. Mr. Mason, of Pine Grove Grange, was present, and made several valuable recommendations as to future work of the grange, the one attracting the most attention was the consolidation of four districts for high school work. As a result of the discussion Messrs. Robbins, Stayton, and Murphy were appointed to represent the Grange at a meeting to be called soon in Hood River. The sentiment of the Grange was in favor of consolidation.

Mrs. Alice Wright is visiting at the home of Mr. J. J. Gibbons.

Married

Lentz-Rogers.

An interesting home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rogers at 234 East 32nd street, Portland, Wednesday February 9th at 6:30 p. m., when their youngest daughter Nellie was joined in marriage to William Lentz of Hood River.
