N. W. Bone of Hood River was in The Dalles to call on friends Thursday.

E. H. Shepard, editor of Better Fruit, and Chris Grelsen were in the Yakima country last week attending fruit meetings in the interest of Oregon's premier fruit paper.

A bunch of local disciples of Pierpont Morgan and Hetty Green have started a little jackpot to buy land. They expect to be running a national bank before the season is over.

An intensely interested audience that filled the church listened to a talk on socialism by O. J. Nelson at the Unitarian church last Sunday evening. These services, dealing with live topics of present day interest are being largely attended and great interest is being manifested. Next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, a discussion will be open by Frank Chandler on "The power of money and the money power." Everyone is cordially invited to be present, to listen or to take part as you wish. It's a duty and a privilege to post yourself on these important subjects.

Train despatching by telephone instead of telegraph is the latest improvement installed by the Great Northern on its line between Minneapolis and Seattle. The Spokane Division, covering the trackage from Troy, Mont., to Leavenworth, Minn., is being equipped for this service, which is far superior to the old method. The mechanism is more simple and reduces to a minimum the danger of wrecks and congested conditions of former days, chargeable to telegraph despatching.

List your property with Devlin & Firebaugh.

John Goldsberry has purchased the H. T. Anderson quarter in the Upper Valley for his brother in Minneapolis, buying through John Leland Henderson, incorporated. This sale nearly finishes the $50 land in that section.

The J. U. G. girls were royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Keir and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schmeltzer last Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in playing guessing games and listening to music. Miss Edith Andrews, Miss Bryant, Mrs. E. O. Hall and Mrs. Schmeltzer sang and Clarence Gilbert and Miss Bryant gave some instrumental selections on violin and piano. The prizes for the games went to Miss Mae Davidson, Miss Nettie Allen, Mrs. E. O. Hall and A. T. Allen. An elaborate lunch was served during the evening to which all did ample justice.

The Bible school of the Christian church is one of the thirty-one in the state in line for the honor of "Front Rank School." The requirements are: 1st—that it be graded, having at least six departments—Cradle Roll, Primary, Junior, Intermediate, Adult and Home Department, with a superintendent for each; 2nd—adult classes with international certificates; 4th—that 50 per cent of the school own and bring their Bibles; 5th—a regular teacher's and officer's meeting; 6th—must contribute to missions and benevolences. This means a mighty effective organization.

For results, list your orchard land with Devlin & Firebaugh.
