What was the object of these devils in wanting to enter these swine?

Why is it that bad men and devils take a delight in causing loss and pain, and that they are really "tormented" when they are restrained from doing evil?

Are there any today possessed with devils that Jesus cannot cast out? Why or why not?

Verses 33-34—What action do bad men take today when their unholy business is being overthrown by men of God?

Lesson for Sunday, March 20, 1910. A Paralytic Forgiven and Healed. Matt. 9:1-13.

NEW COUNTY MAPS
FURNISH ACCURATE DATA

An extensive, complete and accurate map of Hood River county, something that has long been needed, is being issued by the Hood River Abstract Company. The map has found instant favor and a large number of them have already been placed. The map shows the titles to all the property in the county up to the first of the year as near as it is possible to get them and is in eight sections each three feet square. The sections are shown on a scale of 5/8 inches square.

The first section shows the entire county with rivers and roads, the second all that part of township 3 next to the river. The third shows township 2 North 10, the fourth 1 north 10, the fifth 1 south 10, the sixth 2 north 9, seventh 1 north 9 and eighth 1 and 2 north 11.

All tracts large and small are shown by boundaries and names of owners and all roads for which reliable information could be obtained are indicated. Railroads, rivers, irrigation ditches are also accurately and plainly shown. The map is printed by a new process of blue lines on white durable cloth. The demand for the maps is so keen that the first installment was exhausted before another could be secured.

When a lady wants a spring suit, jacket or coat, that's our line of business. We will show you the Palmer garment. That's argument enough. —F. H. Morlan.*

Two Mighty Works. Matt. 8:23-34 Golden Text — What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him. Matt. 8:27.

Verses 23-24—What is your idea as to whether Jesus was liable to the same natural difficulties and diseases as we are, such as weariness, headache, seasickness, etc., and did he have to battle against wind and tide? As Jesus gave orders for this voyage (v. 18) could it result disastrously either to the ship or the passengers, and is there, or not, any sort of danger in the work to which God directs us?

Why are difficulties, such as wind and waves, and other opposing forces permitted in the lives of all true and good men?

Verses 25-26—Why could Jesus sleep in the midst of such a storm and with his disciples in such distress of mind?

Why were the fears of the disciples foolish and unfounded?

What reasons are there for or against the idea that the ship could not possibly sink with Jesus on board?

Did these disciples do well to rebuke Jesus (See Mark 4:38) for what was one of the greatest blessings of their lives, and is this a mistake, if not a sin, of frequent occurrence?

Is there any reason to think that it would have been better if they had not awakened Jesus, and if their prayer had never been made?

When we pray to God to change and experience or to alter circumstances which he has planned for our help, how would you characterize such a prayer?

Verse 27—Why did Jesus perform this miracle?

By what power was this great miracle performed?

Which would be of the greater benefit to mankind, for God to run the universe and the affairs of men on fixed laws or by miracles?

Verse 27—What are the chief characteristics of the devil, as illustrated by these two who were possessed with devils?

Can you give examples of any today possessed with devils or which show similar moral characteristics as these two?

Verse 29—How did these devils probably know Jesus? How much virtue is there in mere orthodoxy or in a proper intellectual estimate of Jesus? (See Jas. 2:19.)

If bad men know they are on the road to "torment" how do you account for the fact that they keep right on the same road?

On any view of the future life what escape is there from the result of moral law? viz: that right doing produces happiness, wrong doing produces misery, that actions form habits, that in turn form character, which procures eternal destiny? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 30-32—According to the Jewish law how are the keepers and eaters of swine's flesh regarded?

Why did Jesus permit the devils to enter this herd of swine?

Give some examples of how God in all ages has used the devil to accomplish his purposes, and say why he does so.
