DIED

Ivan J. Miller

Ivan J. Miller, son of J. J. Miller, aged about 17 years, died at the home of his father Friday, March 4. Funeral services over the body of Mr. Miller were held in the Valley Christian church in this city, Rev. A. J. Adams officiating. Interment was made in Idlevild cemetery.

Mrs. Lavona Smith

Mrs. Lavona Smith, wife of Oscar Smith and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, died Saturday, March 5th. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, March 6th, at the Christian church in this city, Rev. A. J. Adams officiating. Interment was in Idlevild cemetery.

Mrs. Smith was born at Markley, Wash., October 8, 1889. She attended school at Barrett several years, graduating in 1907, and enjoyed the sincere friendship of teachers and classmates.

She yielded obedience to her Savior in 1905; was united in marriage to O. L. Smith November 25, 1908. Her life was an open book and needs no eulogy. We miss her genial presence and the ring of her merry and cheerful voice. Her host of friends and former schoolmates recognized the strong and commendable elements of her character. Her chief delight was to be with her people and friends.

She leaves behind a husband, father, mother, two sisters and three brothers.

They that sleep in Him shall awake and shall meet with the Lord in the air and so shall ever be present with the Lord. B. L. M.

Geo. W. Allen

In reference to the death of Geo. W. Allen, who is well known here, a Summit, N. J., paper publishes the following obituary:

In the death of Mr. George W. Allen, which occurred in Summit on Sunday, February 20th, the community loses a man who was one of the pioneers in the improvement of the town. He was born in Meriden, Conn., on January 1st, 1845, entered Yale college in 1861, but left there to enlist as a soldier in the civil war.

He served with the Fifteenth Connecticut Regiment at Arlington Heights, Yorktown, Fredericksburg, Newbern Port Royal, etc., and soon after-ward being promoted to a captaincy in the 29th Connecticut regiment, saw active service in the trenches at Petersburg and the battles around Richmond.

After the war he became prominent in the manufacture of wall paper as a member of the firm of F. Beck & Co., New York City, and took up his residence in Summit.

Recognizing at once the advantages of Summit as a place for suburban residences, he purchased a large plot of ground, which he improved in laying out and naming its main street "New England avenue." The planting of shade trees, the drainage system and water supply were all done by his direction and at his expense. Many new residences were started and the advance movement in making Summit what it is today received a great impetus.

He was most active in the support of the Presbyterian church, giving very largely of his means to promote its efficiency, and was generous in the extreme in assisting any object that would benefit the community.

He was a man of marked gentleness, unselfish and thoroughly devoted to his family and friends.

He leaves a widow, formerly Mary Lester Harris, daughter of the late William H. Harris of Brooklyn; two sons, Edward Warren Allen, New York manager of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Co., and Harris P. Allen, in the wholesale wall paper business; Mrs. George F. Higgins (Ruth Allen) of Boston, and Misses Mary and Grace Allen.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence in West Summit and were conducted by his pastor, Rev. M. C. Morgan, who spoke of his earnest Christian character, his unostentatious liberality in the days of prosperity and patient submission in the days of adversity, in all seeing God's hand and never failing to trust Him. His blind daughter, Grace, sang three solos. The interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

Medicines that aid nature are always most successful. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by all dealers.

MOSIER

Miss Bertha Booth left Monday of last week for Portland to visit her mother and family. She returned Sunday to take up her work as primary teacher.

Miss Ethel Johnson left Friday to spend several days with her parents in Portland.

The weather has been most delightful the past few days and you can see everyone clearing the back yard getting ready to plant early garden.

Dr. Johnson and William Marsh have fenced their lots and are making other improvements which help to make the home surroundings more attractive.

Guy Wilson is building a house for J. E. Cole to occupy when completed. It is in the new addition to Mosier.

Mrs. Rush left for Kelso, Wash., Saturday to be gone for some time. Her daughter and son Daniel accompanied her for a week's visit with relatives in Kelso.

Hotel Pines is again being enlarged this time a new kitchen and a larger dining room with ten more bedrooms up stairs. Mr. Wallberg finds it keeps him busy adding rooms to accommodate the travelling public.

Our new real estate firm, Burggraf & Vogt have a fine new auto which they intend to use in showing the fellow from Missouri, or any other state, that they have some choice orchard land for sale.

Fr. D. Evans is taking Gordon Graham's place as mail carrier while Gordon is helping repair the telephone lines. When completed they expect to have no more trouble with crossed wires.

Mrs. C. G. Nichol and Mildred are spending a week or so with friends in Portland.

Mrs. C. D. Hinrichs and Mrs. Nickelsen of Hood River were here calling on friends Saturday.
