IT CAN'T BE DONE

Yet you might as well try to lift yourself by your boot straps as try to keep up with the times without reading your home newspaper. By the way, come to think of it, wouldn't today be a good time to subscribe?

Giving a Boost

Is better than trying to drag down.

You can help to boost this town by taking an interest in its doings. If you read this paper regularly you will be pretty sure to become interested in local affairs.

YOU DROPPED SOMETHING

Which reminds us: If you will drop a postal card to us we will call for your subscription to this paper for the coming year.

OIL ASSURED IN VALE OIL FIELDS

J. P. Wilbur, a businessman of Union Oregon, is a guest at the Mt. Hood Hotel. He is heavily interested in the Vale oil fields in Malheur county and is a director in both the Columbia Oil and Gas Co. and the Mammoth Oil and Gas Co.

In conversation with a representative of the News yesterday, Mr. Wilbur said: The future of the Vale oil fields from a commercial standpoint is an assured fact.

Of the six companies now drilling four have succeeded beyond any doubts in obtaining at depths ranging from 900 to 1700 feet a stream of the liquid wealth that will assure the stockholders of those companies huge returns on their investment.

Copple Orchard Sold

B. E. Duncan & Co. last week completed the purchase of 20 acres of young orchard for S. A. Wendell, a traveling man. The orchard was purchased of S. E. Copple and is located in the east side district, one mile south of Tuckers bridge.

UNDERWOOD

Mrs. P. I. Packard came up from Portland Friday.

Charley Thornton, who has been clearing on the Gibbs place, had his leg broken Wednesday by the breaking of the doubletree on the stump puller.

Mrs. H. M. Greiner, who has been in Los Angeles for about a month, where she was called by the sickness of an aunt, returned Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazelton moved into their new home this week.

Took it to Himself.

A well known hotel keeper and politician received an appointment as collector of internal revenue. Arriving at his office one morning, he found on his desk a letter addressed to him officially and without any postmark. Upon opening the letter he was surprised to find a $500 bill, to which was pinned a piece of paper with these words: "Conscience money." Folding up the greenback and tucking it carefully in his vest pocket, he remarked, "I always did suspect that bartender of mine."

PLEASANT AT FIRST.

But the New Arrival Realized at Last Just Where She Was.

A modern lady died and went to hades. His majesty met her differentially at the gate.

"Will it be possible for me to secure an establishment here?" she said.

"Certainly, madam."

"In a desirable location?"

"I think so."

"I don't care to be near the riffraff, and I should like to be sure to get suitable servants."

"You should experience no difficulty. There are several good agencies."

"I could give dinner parties when I liked?"

"Dear me, yes."

"And make a splurge at it?"

"Oh, certainly."

"I should expect to spend my summers abroad."

"Quite right. Return tickets free."

"You have operas?"

"Several, devoted to the haut ton."

The lady lifted her tortoise. She smiled slightly.

"Do you know," she said, "I am agreeably surprised. I was afraid this place was not kept up to conform to the best standards. It troubled me to think I might possibly have to associate with my inferiors. I am glad to see that you have such sense of the fitness of things. I am very glad to have renewed our brief acquaintance made on earth, and I will trouble you to see that my arrival is chronicled in the society columns of the papers."

His majesty bowed respectfully.

"Sorry, madam, but that will be impossible."

She gazed at him haughtily.

"How is that?" she asked sternly.

"There are no papers here; there are no society columns. No matter what you are doing, the public is in absolute ignorance of it."

And, sinking back she muttered softly to herself:

"This is indeed hell!"—Life.

life." Evening, "Sampson, or a great beginning and a tragic end."

PINE GROVE

The Ladies' Aid will hold a social at the home of Mrs. Mark Wednesday afternoon of this week.

The horticultural meeting at Pine Grove grange hall Tuesday of last week was a successful gathering of nearly all of the orchardists in the vicinity, who listened with attention to the addresses by the professors present. A banquet was served to about 100 people in the dining hall.

The grangers will give an entertainment at their hall Thursday evening of this week, admission 25c.

Mrs. Martin Dragseth, who had been visiting her mother several days returned home Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Rogers of Hood River visited Mrs. James Malloy last week.

Mrs. Bert Lewis of Portland, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vanter, returned to her home Thursday.

J. G. Jarvis left for Washougal Monday on a business trip.

The many automobiles the country affords were in evidence Sunday last, among them a fine one recently purchased by Wilson Eike.

The statement made in last week's issue to the effect that Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scobe were in Portland visiting was incorrect, caused by a misunderstanding. Mr. Scobe's brother and wife are in Portland. They are from the east and enjoyed a delightful journey here. We hope they will decide to establish a home in our valley.

Mrs. Amanda Sears and Mr. Porter's family went to Portland last week and took in the aeroplane flights.

Dr. Allen returned last week after an absence of several weeks in the east. Ralph Johnson and family, who have been caring for his place, have returned to their home.

Jas. Malloy left a few days ago to take charge of a fruit farm near Spokane.

VALLEY CREST

Mr. Goldsbury was in our vicinity Monday.

A. T. Allen was here several days last week with land seekers.

Miss Mamie Thompson returned

Friday after a short visit with relatives and friends at Pine Grove and Hood River.

H. A. Rogers returned from Hood River, Wednesday, where he purchased a team.

Mr. Winter and family have moved to their ranch which they purchased of A. T. Allen.

Mr. Goldsbury has purchased the H. T. Anderson ranch on China Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Rockhold of Riverside Cal., are here looking for land.

Huggins-Spight

L. H. Huggins, member of the firm of Wood & Huggins, and Mrs. Bertha Spight were quietly married at the residence of the latter at 2:30 Sunday afternoon by Rev. J. R. Hargreaves, Mr. and Mrs. Huggins left on the afternoon train for a trip through California.
