Notice
I have been to considerable expense in improving Wau Gwin Gwin and have also always been glad to show visitors who come there through the premises, and have tried in every way to treat all alike. Therefore, the act of vandals in destroying my property by throwing a half dozen chairs over the bluff, which were placed at the disposal of guests, has caused me to issue notice that I will arrest any one that comes onto the grounds sight-seeing without permission, and will prosecute them to the full extent of the law.

ROBT. RAND,
Wau Gwin Gwin, Mar. 14, 1910.*

Devlin & Firebaugh brought up a party of 16 laborers last week which they were fortunate enough to find in Portland and put them to work clearing on one of their properties. The majority of them are Greeks.
