UNDERWOOD

Dr. A. L. Golder of The Dalles and H. M. Chapman of Portland spent a day here recently in looking over Underwood country.
Mr. Brunson, the representative of the Dement Bros. Milling Co. of Walla Walla, was here last week. We understand that the company is about ready to begin work on the mill here.
Road Supervisor Darting is at work on the new grade up the Underwood hill. There is some rather heavy work to be done there to repair the damage done by the water coming down from above.
County Commissioner Willard was over looking after road and bridge matters.

Mrs. E. C. Hamilton has returned from a visit in Portland.
Theo. Paine of the Wenatchee country spent a couple of days looking over our district last week.

H. W. Hamlin was in Portland last week to arrange for his wife's return from the east where she has been visiting since the first of the year.
P. C. S. Wills was up from Cooks recently looking over a piece of land he recently purchased from E. C. Hamilton.

C. M. Fowler, traveling passenger and freight agent of the North Bank was here a couple of days recently.

Bob Cline has about recovered from his recent siege of typhoid fever with which he was laid up at Stevenson most of the winter.
Chris Grelsen, of Better Fruit, was over last week.

J. A. Haak, who has quite a tract in the Hamlin district was here this week in connection with the sawmill proposition.

The recent attempt to take the mail route away from Underwood proved a failure and new proposals for bids are now posted.

Dr. G. W. Whiteside and family are at the ranch for a week end visit.

The music at the Easter service was exceptionally fine and was greatly enjoyed by a large and appreciative congregation, as was also the sermon by Rev. Mr. Lowden.

Harry Stickney and G. C. Gorlie were in White Salmon Friday and Saturday. We wonder what for.

Mr. Boss, a friend of the Cummins, spent Sunday at the Sioux City colony.

H. W. Hamlin and Mr. Hurd made a trip to Trout Lake this week to see the country.

The annual meeting of the Underwood Improvement Club was held Saturday and the following officers were elected for the year: Pres., P. I. Packard, Vice Pres., Frank Fox; Secretary and Treasurer, H. W. Hamlin. Arrangements were made to meet alternately at Underwood and Hamlin as the membership is about equally divided between the two places.
Gerald Beebe was up at the ranch over Sunday.

P. I. Packard, our Fruit Inspector, was at Cape Horn this week to inspect one of the largest shipments of tress ever made to Southern Washington.

J. A. Holmes of Salt Lake City, accompanied by his mother and a Dr. Webster spent a few days in Underwood this week looking over some property in which they are interested in the Hamlin neighborhood.

W. W. Rodwell of the Philippines, and a friend were Underwood visitors on Tuesday.

Porter Bros. have sold their big donkey engine that they brought in here last year to clear land with and it is being taken to the railroad at Underwood for shipment.

We understand that a deal is on hand for the Stip saw mill at Chenoweth. Should this plan fall to go through, the parties plan to put in a mill on top of the hill near the Seeley place and clean up all the timber in the vicinity of the "Sioux City" colony, which at present is being burned in order to get rid of it.

F. S. Forest and family came up from Portland Friday night to spend a few days at the ranch.

A. A. Jayne has money to lend at 6 per cent on good security.

What Intermittency Means.

Intermittency is that form of irregularity in which the pulse appears to drop a beat occasionally. In some instances it occurs regularly and two or three times per minute for several hours. Sometimes also it is very irregular and is noted a number of times within a few seconds and not again for a minute or more. This peculiarity generally causes much uneasiness. Yet, while it may be a very serious symptom and associated with grave and incurable disease of the heart, it often signifies merely a functional disturbance which is in nowise dangerous.

Why He Got Up.

It was only about noonday, but the commuter yawned. He yawned heavily two or three times.

"Got up at 6 o'clock," he explained. "Had to catch my train. When my wife waked me I said to her: 'Six o'clock! The chickens haven't begun to crow yet, have they? Why must I get up before the chickens do, I'd like to know.'"

"I don't know," she said, "unless it's because you're no chicken."--New York Press.

Fatal Curiosity.

"How did they manage to get such a fine thumb print of the burglar?" "The house had been painted that day, and he just couldn't resist the temptation to feel of the paint to see if it was dry."--Houston Post.

Her Worry.

Mrs. Hoyle--You seem unhappy. Mrs. Doyle--I am. I don't believe that if I were to die my husband would wear as deep mourning as he did for his first wife.--New York Press.

Scraples too rigid are nothing else but concealed pride.--Goethe.
