LOCAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB

April 10, 1910
The Mission of the Twelve. Matt. 9:35-10:15, 40-42.
Golden Text—Freely ye have received, freely give. Matt. 10:8
Verses 35-36—What is the gospel of the kingdom?
Jesus spent his whole time in caring for the bodies and souls of the people, to what extent are all men under obligation to do the same thing?
What proportion of the people in this community are like "sheep having no shepherd?"
Verses 37-38—Is the harvest today as plentiful or more plentiful than in the day of Jesus and what is the evidence?
Where are the chief harvest fields of Christian opportunity today?
What proportion of the crop is being lost, for want of harvesters to gather it in?
How can we best increase the number of the harvesters? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club)
Verse 1—What is the difference between the power given to the original twelve apostles and that given to ministers or other godly men today?
The original twelve apostles had power (1) To preach the gospel of the kingdom, (2) To remit sins, (3) To cast out devils, (4) To cure all manner of diseases, and (5) To raise the dead. (Verse 8) How much of this power is still in the church, and what power ought the church to have more than she possesses?
Verses 2-4—What significance is there, if any, in the fact that Jesus selected apostles to the number of twelve?
What was the occupation, or business individually, of the twelve apostles at the time of their calling?
Did Jesus know the future of each of the apostles at the time he called them?
Verses 5-8—From this story would you judge that Jesus loved the Gentiles less than he did the Jews, and if not, why did he forbid the apostles going to them?
Verses 9-10—Is there any reason to believe that Jesus did not mean the instructions about taking no money when going on missionary tour, to be permanent? (See Luke 22:35-36)
Why should not missionaries today adopt the instructions of Jesus as given here, to not provide in advance for their maintenance?

Verses 11-14—To what extent are the instructions for the apostles to billet themselves upon those that were worthy, and not to hire their board applicable to ministers and missionaries today?
What sin, or crime, are those guilty of who refuse to hear God's messengers?
Verse 15—What punishment does God render to the individual, the city or the country which rejects the message of God, and how does he inflict it?
Verses 40-41—Why may we be sure that if we teach the gospel of the kingdom that some will surely receive our message?
If we receive a follower of Jesus we receive Jesus himself, and that is counted to us as receiving God, so Jesus states here; now what follows from this or what does it imply?
What is the reward of a prophet, and that of a righteous man, both of which we may expect to receive if we entertain the servants of God and receive their message?
Verse 42—What is the reward of a smile, a kind word, or a generous act to a child, prompted by a loving heart in which Jesus dwells?
Lesson for Sunday, April 17, 1910—The question of John the Baptist. Matt. 11:1-19.

Whereas, the mysterious presence of death has touched the home of our worthy sister Mrs. Jennie Shoemaker and removed from it a much loved father. Therefore be it resolved, that Canby Corps express to our sister and her loved ones the sympathy we feel in her bereavement. Knowing this kind father and friend we feel that we too are bereaved by the loss of his genial presence and that our hearts are saddened by this affliction. His memory will ever be a comfort to us as recollections of this good true man will make us all better for having known a film.
