The question of John the Baptist.
Matt. 11:3-9.

Golden Text—But the witness which I have is greater than that of John; for the works which the Father hath given me to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear witness of me that the Father hath sent me. John 5:36 (R. V.)

Verse 1—Jesus appears to have taken great pains to instruct his twelve disciples, but why did he not leave them to be wholly instructed by God's Spirit?

In the case of preaching or prayer or testimony does God propose for us just to "open our mouths and he will fill them," or that we should be as thoroughly and humanly prepared as if there were no God?

Does thorough preparation for Christian work show lack of faith or strong faith in God? Why?

Verse 2:3—Why did John ask this question as to whether Jesus was the Christ?

What if any reason is there to believe that John was now wrestling with doubt as to the truth of what he had been preaching concerning Jesus?

What would you say concerning a man of God teaching spiritual truth, in one period, which he knew to be true, and subsequently having grave doubts of the very truth of which he had been so sure?

Does any kind of doubt on the part of a holy man necessarily imply sin, or show weakness?

Is doubt a necessary part of God's training or not, for men of strong character and important work?

Verse 4—Why is a man bowed down with sorrow and crushed with disappointment not in a condition to properly weigh evidence of spiritual truth?

Jesus said "Go show John again those things, etc." Is evidence of spiritual truth made more forceful through being repeated on different occasions, and whether or not, why was it necessary to repeat to John what he had already heard?

Why would it not be a blessing to the people if a minister repeated his most effectual sermons?

Verse 5-6—Jesus laid stress in that day upon the miracles, coupled with the fact that he preached the gospel to the poor, as the proof of his messiahship, but what is the supreme or chief proof of today? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Even suppose the miracles of Jesus should prove to be historical myths, would that detract in any measure from the grandeur of his character or the greatness of his work?

Verse 7-8—What influences caused John to live such a plain, or rigorous life? (See Matt. 3:4 et seq.)

Take for example two men, one devout the other Godless, one living in richly furnished home and dressing in good clothes the other living in a plain home and wearing coarse apparel, which of the two is more likely to be the Godless man, and why?

What was the difference in the mode of the life of Jesus and that of John the Baptist?

Verse 9-11—What were the minimum qualities essential to being a prophet, and in what particulars did John exceed these?

In what did the greatness of John the Baptist consist from the standpoint of Jesus?

If Jesus had in mind a "greater" and a "greater," then in what two senses is this word used by him here?

Verse 12-15—What is religious "violence" and what is the nature of the "force" which captures the kingdom of heaven?

Verse 16-19—What caused them to denounce John for qualities the absence of which in Jesus they also denounced?

Lesson for Sunday April 24th, 1910 Warning and Invitation. Matt. 11: 20-30.

YOU CAN EARN
$25 IN CASH

The Nesmith County Committee, in charge of the matter of creating a new county from portions of Lane and Douglas, offers a prize of $25 in cash to the person suggesting in an article not exceeding 300 words the most logical reasons "Why the Smaller Counties of Oregon are More Beneficial to the State Than the Larger Ones." Contestants are not limited to any given locality, but in each county shall be a subscriber to at least one of the county newspapers, all articles on the subject to be delivered to the editor of one of these newspapers who will forward them to a committee selected from outside of the proposed Nesmith county for decision as to the winner.

No person within the proposed new county shall enter the contest which will close on June 30.

All articles on the subject must be in the hands of the secretary on that date and the award will be made on July 20. One side of the paper only on which the article is written should be used; the writing must be legible, and the name of the author and postoffice address should be appended. Any person desiring to compete for this prize may receive literature pertaining to the subject by addressing Lew A. Cates, Secretary, Cottage Grove, Oregon.

With headquarters at Portland, all the 40 Eilers music stores on the Pacific slope have been consolidated and the incorporation papers will be filed immediately for the new company, to be known as the Eilers Music House, with a capital of $3,- 000,000, says the Telegram.

This consolidation creates one of the largest and strongest corporations devoted to the sale of musical instruments in America. The company will control the sale of many of the foremost lines of American and European pianos and musical instruments.

The consolidation of interests in this line has been made necessary by trade conditions existing on the Pacific coast. Three pianos are sold on the Pacific coast to one sold in any other section of the United States.

Among the famous of makes handled by Eilers are the Chickering, the Hallett & Davis, the Sohmer, the Weber, the Steinway pianola piano, the Kimball, the Hobart M. Cable and the Smith & Barnes.

The following men, identified with the piano business of the Pacific coast, form the directorate of the Eilers Music House: Chairman, Henry Eilers, founder of the firm; D. S. Johnson, president; Adolph H.
Eilers and S. J. McCormick, Portland; G. A. Heldinger, Spokane; R. S.
Fringer and Clarence R. Hopper, Seattle; R. S. Irvine, Stockton; A. L.
Andrus, Tacoma; W. S. Gannon and Theodore Hardee, San Francisco.

Let the other fellow do it.
If you beat him to the buy he's after he certainly will.

Now if a man could get a rattling good quarter, less than a half mile from Mosier, one-third cleared, at $50 an acre, and didn't, shouldn't he kick himself, if he's limber enough?

The Only $125 Land Near Parkdale

Forty acres of it 1 1/2 miles from the station; all orchard land.

$25,000 is a lot of money, but not much for forty acres 2 1/2 miles from town; 20 acres cultivated, 5 acres of orchard bearing, 8 acres of five-year trees and 5 acres of two and three year trees that are bigger than they need to be for their age.

And $500 an acre isn't bad for a 10 1/2 acre ranch home, close to station; set to standard trees, small house and barn.
Pretty location.

Eight room modern home, two lots, down town; furnace, range, bath; $3,800.
Partly furnished, $4,400.
