Warning and Invitation—Matt. 11: 20-30

Golden Text—Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Matt. 11:28
Verses 20-21—Have all sinners the power to repent? Why, or why not? What reason can you give for or against the view that a sinner will immediately repent, on the presentation of the gospel, unless he resists his good impulses?
Why did not Chorazin and Bethsaida repent under the preaching of Jesus when it was backed up with such mighty works?
What is the woe which Jesus pronounces upon the unrepentant?
Do sinners now, or will they in the future, suffer any punishment other than the natural results of sin in themselves?
Verse 22—Will there be degrees in the punishment of the lost, and if so, by what method do you suppose it will be gauged?
How and by what method are the just rewarded in this life, and will the same method probably be operative in the future life? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
How far will the lowest man in heaven be from the highest man in hell?

Verses 23-24—If Sodom would have repented under the influences which Capernaum rejected, does this, or not, imply that it is simply a matter of the strength of the influence whether a man repents or not?
If a sinner repents under one influence and rejects under a stronger one is it right to put the blame of a sinner rejecting the gospel upon the too weak influence brought to bear upon him?
Are there influences, which could be brought to bear, strong enough to cause the most hardened sinner to repent?
Verse 25—Why or why not are culture, education and scientific research any necessary aid or hindrance to spiritual discernment?
Why have children and those with a childlike spirit a keener spiritual vision than others with more knowledge?

Are uneducated people, with the same kind of moral character, more liable to yield to spiritual truth than those who are highly educated?
What are the eyes with which we see spiritual truth, are they of the human intellect or of the immortal soul, and how do you explain the process?
Verse 26—Why did God make spiritual preception not to depend upon the intellect?
Verse 27—Explain how and why it is that God has given Jesus the control of all things.
To whom does the Father and Jesus reveal themselves?
Verses 28-30—To what kind of rest does Jesus invite those who will come unto him?

What is your view as to whether Jesus is a hard or an easy master to please?
Can a sincere person of ordinary attainments perfectly please God in all things and then find that Jesus' "burden is light?"
Lesson for Sunday, May 1, 1910—Two Sabbath Incidents. Matt 12:1-14

Don't Want to Trade
Editor News: We send the following letter which we wrote in answer to a proposition to trade Hood River land for seashore property.
We would sell all we have and buy us a boat.
And down old Columbia we gladly would float;
Our soul loves the ocean and its storms and its calms,
But our stomach wont work on its fish and its clams.
We would go to Astoria and evermore dwell,
If our stomach would stand for the fish market smell.
You ask us to trade our Hood River lands
For inside property down by the sands.
We could leave Hood River and its apples galore,
And buy us a home down by the sea shore;
We could leave Hood River and our friends all so dear,
To dwell by the ocean, its billows to hear;
For an Astoria pelican knows not what is care,
While a Hood River appleman has his full share.
We love the salt waters and the grand ocean's swell,
But our stomach wont stand for the fish market smell.

Good Action, Without Profit

Let the other fellow do it. If you beat him to the buy he's after he certainly will.

Now if a man could get a rattling good quarter, less than a half mile from Mosier, one-third cleared, at $50 an acre, and didn't, shouldn't he kick himself, if he's limber enough?

The Only $125 Land Near Parkdale

Forty acres of it 1 1/2 miles from the station; all orchard land.

$25,000 is a lot of money, but not much for forty acres 2 1/2 miles from town; 20 acres cultivated, 5 acres of orchard bearing, 8 acres of five-year trees and 5 acres of two and three year trees that have had scientific, careful care and are bigger than they need to be for their age.

And $500 an acre isn't bad for a 10 1/2 acre ranch home, close to station; set to standard trees, small house and barn. Pretty location.

Eight room modern home, two lots, down town; furnace, range, bath; $3,800. Partly furnished, $4,400.
